AEROPLANES BEING SENT TO CANTON NOW BY BRITISH

Troops From India Also Are Expected to Arrive Within Two Weeks

Deputation is to Present Demands to Chinese Government, States Dispatch

Canton, July 30.—The arrival of a British deputation here to present demands on the Chinese Government is expected within the next two weeks.

With the coming of the demands it was also announced here two British aeroplanes are expected from India and that troops from that country will be sent to reinforce the British units in this vicinity.

The general strike of Chinese against foreigners is still effective and no business is apparent excepting the movement of small shipments of raw silk by Japanese firms from storage in Shanghai, the foreign settlement.

ELEVEN KILLED IN CANTON

London, July 30.—An agency dispatch from Hongkong says eleven Chinese strikers were killed in Canton by the bodyguard of an official before whose house a mob had gathered demanding a daily cash strike allowance.

The dispatch refers to "an influx of Russians from Vladivostok at Canton," and says two Russian ships have arrived at Whampoa, an outpost twenty-seven miles from Canton.

The character of these Russian ships is not indicated. There are large numbers of "White" Russians in various parts of China, where they fled from the Bolshevik regime in their own country. There are also "Red" Russians in China.

ISLAND ROAD PROBLEMS TO BE FEATURED

Good Roads League to Urge Big Improvements to Island Highway at Convention

To Ask Action on West Coast Road; Island Invited to Voice Its Problems

Island road problems, including the proposed road to the West Coast of Vancouver Island and important improvements to the Island Highway, will be featured at the annual convention of the Good Roads League of British Columbia here early in September, Frank Bird, secretary of the organization, announced on his arrival in the city to-day.

Resolutions favoring the extension of Island Highway paving about eight miles from Colwood north or an alternative scheme of surfacing parts of the road will be brought before the convention, Mr. Bird said. The whole question of a West Coast road, he added, will be thrashed out from every angle with a view to strong representations to the Provincial Government.

Another important matter to be discussed by the convention is the advisability of ear-marking a large proportion of Government automobile revenue for good roads purposes, Mr. Bird said.

HAIG IS TO LEAVE CANADA TO-MORROW

Montreal, July 30.—Field-Marshal Earl Haig, accompanied by Countess Haig, will sail for England from here to-morrow morning aboard the liner Letitia. A guard of honor and military band will accompany the distinguished visitor from the home of Sir Henry Thornton, where they stayed during their visit here, to the liner.

WOMAN DYING AS RESULT OF ACCIDENT

Urbana, Ill., July 30.—One woman was fatally injured and several persons sustained fractures of limbs and minor hurts yesterday afternoon a mile east of Tolono when a west-bound Wabash passenger train was derailed.

Maggie Keokalo, Decatur, Ill., is in a local hospital with no chance for recovery. Her skull was fractured and she was badly bruised about the body.

The cause of the wreck is not known.

ONTARIO MAN WAS MURDERED

Windsor, Ont., July 30.—James S. Devey, twenty-three years of age, Irish-American, for some time employed at the St. Clair Country Club, was murdered, police believe, sometime this morning near Little River. The body of the young man was found face up in water to-day by two boys. A severe wound on the right side of the head just above the temple is mute testimony of the use of some weapon.

B.C.'S LAST SALMON PACK EASILY LARGEST ON RECORD FISHERY STATISTICS SHOW

British Columbia's salmon pack last year was 1,745,313 cases, the largest on record. This is 400,000 cases larger than any pack in the last five years, exceeds the previous high record of 1918 by 129,156 cases and is a big advance over the 1923 output of 1,341,677 cases.

These facts were made known to-day when Hon. William Sloan, Commissioner of Fisheries, released the annual report of his department for 1924.

The increase in British Columbia's salmon output, the report states, is due almost entirely to the pack of pinks and chums, which combined totaled 1,226,454 cases, of seventy-seven per cent of the whole pack. The pack consisted of 657,538 cases of pinks, 568,916 chums, 369,603 sockeye, 115,722 cohoes, 27,456 and 27,456 springs.

The pack of all species of salmon in the Fraser River system in the Province in 1924 totaled 212,059 cases. The combined pink and chum pack was 141,463 cases, or sixty-seven per cent. The sockeye pack was but 39,743, a gain of 8,088 cases over that of the previous year and 3,856 cases less than in the fourth preceding year.

The pack of sockeye in the State of Washington waters of the Fraser River system in 1924 was 29,369 cases. The entire sockeye pack of the Fraser River system totaled 109,112 cases, being 2,000 cases less than four years ago.

The mild cured salmon pack of the Province in 1924 was 2,969 tonnes, containing approximately 2,375,000 pounds, and the fish-canning plants operated in the Province marked 8,405,656 pounds of salmon. The dry salted herring pack of the Province in 1924 was 46,478 tons. (Continued on page 3)

Seattle, July 30.—George W. Vallery of Denver, Colorado, was elected Grand Master of the Knights Templar here to-day at their thirty-sixth triennial convocation.

COMMUNISTS IN FRANCE ON TRIAL

Government Carrying on Campaign; Deputy J. Doriot to Face Jury

Paris, July 30.—Intensification of the French Government's campaign against Communists is indicated by the lodging of formal charges against Jacques Doriot, a Communist deputy, for inciting French soldiers in Morocco to mutiny and fraternize with Abd-el-Krim's tribesmen.

All of the members of the "Committee of Action Against the Moroccan War" were charged with Doriot.

Strasbourg, Alsace-Lorraine, July 30.—The authorities here have charged four militant members of the "Young Communist" organization with inciting troops to mutiny. The action was taken after searches had been carried out in the offices of the newspapers L'Humanite and the Advance Guard.

CONFERENCE EFFORT TO END COAL STRIKE

Empire Steel Corporation Men Talk With Premier Rhodes of Nova Scotia

Halifax, July 30.—President R. M. Wolvin and Vice-president J. E. Lutz of the British Empire Steel Corporation entered into a conference this morning with Premier E. N. Macdonald in a further endeavor to settle the five-month-old Nova Scotia coal strike. Members of the district society of the United States to-day America representing the 12,000 employees involved were in the event of a decision to resume joint negotiations.

ANGLO-JAPANESE TRADE TREATY IS SIGNED IN LONDON

London, July 30.—Baron Hayashi, Japanese Ambassador to Great Britain, and Foreign Secretary Chamberlain to-day signed a new Anglo-Japanese treaty regarding trade and navigation. The new agreement modifies an existing commercial treaty and is understood to be without political significance.

CITIZENS' CRUSADE AGAINST CRIME IN UNITED STATES BEING LAUNCHED

Two of the leaders in the new movement to make the United States a safer place in which to live.

New York, July 30.—First steps toward forming a national crime commission and launching a citizens' crusade against crime, characterized as "terrifying beyond all expression," are being taken here. A meeting yesterday, called by Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the board of the United States Steel Corporation, was attended by Governor Smith and representatives of the Judiciary, the State Senate, the police department and big business interests.

Governor Smith proposed a concrete plan which probably will mean the enactment of new crime laws in this state.

It was urged President Coolidge be acquainted with the details and purposes of the meeting, and perhaps asked to help the crusade against crime by national action.

COUNTRIES COMPARED

Washington, July 30.—Figures made public by the Department of Commerce showing Great Britain is closing prisons because of a decrease in crime, makes a striking comparison with the increase of the crime in the United States.

The criminal statistics of Great Britain have been compiled by Alfred Nutting, of the staff of the United States Consulate-General in London. "More than twenty prisons in England and Wales," he reports, "practically a third of the total, have been closed since 1914."

He adds that "there now are only forty prisons in use in the country, and these are by no means fully occupied."

When Great Britain is closing its prisons, in all parts of the United States prisons are overflowing.

MANY BOOTLEGGERS

Tal dodgers, auto thieves and bootleggers, Department of Justice experts say, are responsible for the increase in the federal prisons, but this does not explain the general increase in crime throughout the country. The increase in the population of federal prisons in the United States may be gathered from the following Department of Justice figures:

Atlanta	1923	1,990	1924	2,258
San Francisco	1,200	1,200	1,200	2,258
McNeill Island	300	300	300	618

100 ARABS WERE KILLED DURING FIGHT

Bagdad, July 30.—A hundred Arabs were killed by Persian Government troops which attacked the palace of the Sheikh of Muhammarch at Pallaahieh, where a band of Arabs established themselves July 24 after storming the town and looting its bazaars. Six Persians were killed.

The scene of the trouble is at the head of the Persian Gulf near the Mesopotamian-Persian frontier.

Young Austrian Farm Hand is Held by Police; Army Revolver Was Used

Basel, July 30.—A young Austrian farm-hand named Johann Hammer, schlegel is accused of having murdered Mrs. Mary Bowen of Berkeley, California, in a park near here yesterday. He shot her with an army revolver and attempted to take her handbag, police allege.

MacMILLAN SHIPS DELAYED BY ICE

Washington, July 30.—The MacMillan Arctic expedition ships became wedged in the Melville Bay ice pack yesterday, but not at the morning session of the Retail Merchants' Association of Canada convention here to-day.

The Alberta provincial board, which introduced the resolution, suggested that organization be commenced immediately with the other organizations of retailers with a view to bringing about greater co-ordination of efforts. It was pointed out that in the past few years there had been an increasing tendency to form purely local, provincial or single line associations.

Retail Merchants Seeking Co-ordination of Efforts

Vancouver, July 30.—Greater co-ordination of efforts between organizations of retailers in Canada was aimed at in a resolution introduced at the morning session of the Retail Merchants' Association of Canada convention here to-day.

The Alberta provincial board, which introduced the resolution, suggested that organization be commenced immediately with the other organizations of retailers with a view to bringing about greater co-ordination of efforts. It was pointed out that in the past few years there had been an increasing tendency to form purely local, provincial or single line associations.

EARTHQUAKE FELT IN SOUTH PART OF THE U.S.

Amarillo, Tex., July 30.—An earth tremor of nearly thirty seconds' duration shook Amarillo and surrounding towns early to-day. The shock was registered here at 6:12 a.m. Buildings awayed, but no damage has been reported.

Reports from New Mexico and Oklahoma towns near the Texas line indicate the tremor extended into those states.

Liberal, Kansas, July 30.—A slight earthquake shock occurred here at 6:15 o'clock this morning. The tremor lasted about three minutes and was sufficiently strong to rattle windows, crack dishes and move heavy furniture slightly.

DEBENTURE HOLDERS OF G.T.P. INVITED TO MAKE COURT TEST OF LIABILITY OF GOVERNMENT

Montreal, July 30.—In order that there may be no misunderstanding with respect to the attitude of the railroad administration in the matter of the Grand Trunk Pacific debenture stock interest, the following copy of a letter written by Sir Henry Thornton, president of the Canadian National Railway, to Alfred Barnard, secretary of the Grand Trunk Pacific Debenture Holders' Committee, in London, was given out for publication at Canadian National Railway headquarters here:

"As you are aware, the liability of the Grand Trunk Railway Company (now a part of the Canadian National Railway system) with regard to certain debenture stock issued by the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Company under the authority of Chapter 100 of the Statutes of Canada, 1906, has been the subject of controversy. The contention and points at issue are so well known that I need not enter into any detailed discussion of them.

"The legal department of the Canadian National Railway Company had advised me the position taken by the company heretofore was sound. In order further to assure myself of this, however, Messrs. Brown, Montgomery and McMichael, barristers of Montreal, for my opinion. This opinion is advanced by Messrs. George A. Touche and Company, who are the auditors of the National Railway system.

"I venture to suggest that you examine the opinion of Messrs. Brown, Montgomery and McMichael, and if you are then still unconvinced of the legality of our position I will be glad to have the appropriate officers of the company discuss the matter in Canada with any representatives you may select in the hope that we may convince you of the correctness of our attitude.

"In the event of further disagreement, I suggest you bring an action in the courts to determine the points at issue. We would be glad to join with you in such a suit and expedite the decision. In any decision handed down the course of course, would determine the division of costs as well as the main question. It may be that you will regard any discussion as profitless and will prefer to initiate legal proceedings immediately, and possibly this might be the more expeditious method.

"It seems to me that what I have proposed will definitely and finally settle the somewhat protracted controversy. After all, courts are provided for the purpose of settling contentions between parties, and I see no reason why we should not avail ourselves of the judiciary in this instance.

"The administration of the National system throughout has denied any liability attached to the Federal Government in the matter of the G.T.P. debentures.

LABOR CONGRESS TO RAISE FUNDS FOR COAL MINERS IN BRITAIN IF THEY STRIKE

Levy to be Imposed on Other Unions if Men Leave Work in Pits as Result of Wage and Hours Dispute With Owners; Baldwin Continues Efforts to Avert Strike.

London, July 30.—The Trades Union Congress of Great Britain unanimously decided at a meeting to-day to give the coal miners every possible assistance if a strike should be called, including financial aid in the form of a levy to be raised in every district of the country.

SHORT TIME REMAINS

London, July 30.—Notwithstanding the failure of Premier Baldwin's efforts yesterday to bring the miners and mine owners of Great Britain together and arrange a settlement of their differences regarding a new working agreement, the postmaster view of A. J. Cook, secretary of the Miners' Federation, that "there is no ray of hope to be seen" was universally held. Although only two days remain in which to make an agreement which would avert cessation of operations in the coal industry in accordance with the strike notice sent out by the workers' leaders, the situation is not yet regarded as entirely beyond hope.

Premier Baldwin, who spent fourteen hours yesterday in conversations with representatives of the miners and mine owners, resumed his talks with both sides to-day and until his attempts are finally declared futile, the people refuse to despair.

MINIMUM WAGE

Yesterday the owners declared they accepted the principle of a minimum wage as approved by the Government's special committee of inquiry into the mining situation, but made it clear it would have to be a "very low minimum," as the industry was losing more money every month. They also proposed relaxing the Seven-hour Act, explaining that by this method they could offer better terms as regards wages.

But the men's representatives reiterated the workers were just as much opposed to longer working hours as they were to reduced wages. SUPPORT PROMISED

The transport and railway unions, which have pledged themselves to help the miners should they go on strike, are making very thorough arrangements to give effect to their pledge.

It is foreseen that such steps as are being taken by the various public services and possibly lead to the tending up of the railroads just as the Summer railroad season is at its height, although this is as yet more of a speculation than a prospect.

NEW BRUNSWICKERS ARE SOON TO VOTE

Nominations For Provincial General Election August 10 Believed Complete Now

Ninety-nine Candidates on Lists in Nineteen Constituencies of Province

St. John, N. B., July 30.—With the nomination of E. McLeish Baltham of Milltown last night as the Liberal candidate in the new urban constituency of St. Stephen-Milltown, the list of those who will run in the New Brunswick provincial election August 10 is believed to have been completed. Altogether ninety-nine candidates have either been nominated by conventions or signified their intention of running independently. The Conservative Opposition has a full ticket in every one of the nineteen constituencies, having forty-eight candidates.

Vancouverites' Trip Through Central B.C. Comes to End

Vancouver, July 29.—After traveling nearly 2,000 miles by water, rail and automobile, the Vancouver Board of Trade party arrived home this morning from its trip through Central British Columbia.

The biggest issue met with in the district between Prince George and Williams Lake was the proposed completion of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway.

A. M. Dollar stated that as president he did not care to commit his board by an expression of opinion on the question that was agitating the district, but said it would have the earliest consideration of the council of the board.

"We want the people of Vancouver Island to understand that our organization is Province-wide in its scope, that we are as much interested in the problems of Vancouver Island as the problems of any other district in British Columbia," Mr. Bird told the Times. "We want to know about your road difficulties. We would like up-Island communities to write to us about their road difficulties so that we can consider them at our convention, and make definite representations on these matters to the Government. We want Island representatives to come to the convention with resolutions on their road problems and ready to fight for these resolutions."

The good roads convention, as usual, will be held at the time of the annual convention of the Union of B.C. Municipalities. The date of the gathering has not been fixed yet, but probably will be in the first week of September.

ROBBERY ATTEMPT LED TO KILLING OF WOMAN AT BASEL

INFORMATION ASKED
Berkeley, Cal., July 29.—The woman found dead yesterday near Basel, Switzerland, is believed here to be Mrs. Mary Bowen, wife of Howard D. Bowen, a retired sugar planter of Hawaii, now a resident of this city.

Bowen said he was unable to ascribe any motive behind a murder plot. The only details he had received were through press dispatches. He cabled the United States consular services both in France and Switzerland for further details and identification of the woman who was believed slain.

Mrs. Bowen left for Europe on May 25, and was expected to return next month. She was accompanied on the tour by Miss Mary George of San Francisco.

London, Ont., July 29.—Two freight trains crashed on the Canadian National Railway at Dorchester in a fog early to-day. The caboose and nine cars of a standing train were telescoped by a following train; the engine of which was derailed. The westbound line is blocked. Nobody was seriously injured.

WEST COAST ROAD VITAL TO VICTORIA

Claude L. Harrison Outlines Benefits to City to Follow Construction

Rotary Club Hear of Great Resources Available at Small Cost

Claude C. Harrison to-day addressed the Rotary Club weekly luncheon on the possibilities of the West Coast of Vancouver Island, and the essential necessity to Victoria of construction of the West Coast Road.

"Victoria has not recovered from the depression of the past few years in the way she should, while other communities which a few years ago were villages, have swept past us. This is, in part, due to the lack of developed natural resources tributary to Victoria, and in studying this situation I find we have been missing something pretty good through lack of development of the West Coast."

"A road of first class character can be constructed for $148,000, not a large sum, and the late Michael King asserted that better grades can be secured than exist on the E. and N. Railway. He backed this opinion with an application in 1909 for a railway charter, a work prevented by his untimely death."

"Get it out of your heads that the route is not feasible. Alderman Todd and others have walked over it. You can get a better and cheaper road than the Malahat, together with resources in minerals, timber and fisheries, such as the Malahat has not," he said.

LAND IN PLENTY

Mr. Harrison asserted that between Pachena and Banfield Creek a larger area of the finest agricultural land awaits development than is found in all Spanish, only awaiting communications for development. He prophesied that unless a road is constructed efforts at settlement will prove fruitless, the immigrants refusing to stay in isolation.

Mr. Harrison declared that recently, at Duncan, Kenneth Duncan had urged road building from Cowichan in preference to Victoria. "Why? Because, being a good citizen, he foresaw such roadwork would erect Duncan to a great city by pouring into that community untold riches now dormant."

"And if that route comes first, Victoria is going to dwindle to a little community of no importance," he warned.

ALL YEAR ROUTE

There are at present between 600 and 900 people living in the district through which a coast road should be built, all suffering from lack of means of access. A coast road would be an all year route, while a road by way of Cowichan Lake would be impassable four months yearly, and STRIKING MILL WORKERS EVICTED FROM HOMES—Unable to meet the rent due to the company for their homes striking mill workers at Willimantic, Conn., have been dispossessed by the American Thread Co. The mill workers have been on a strike for eighteen weeks. The American Federation of Labor has erected tents to shelter the families of the mill workers until a settlement is made with the company.

INTIMIDATION IN WELSH COAL FIELD

3,200 Strikers Armed With Clubs Forced Safety Men to Withdraw From Pits

Amanford, Wales, July 29.—Armed with clubs, eight bands of striking coal miners, each about 400 strong, visited the mines in the anthracite district between midnight and 6 a.m. to-day and intimidated the officials and ordered the safety men to withdraw from the pits, despite the advice of the Miners' Federation that they remain at their posts.

The safety men went out and at mid-afternoon to-day they had not returned to work. There are 20,000 miners in the district and the police have been powerless to prevent disturbances. Yesterday the disturbances took the form of a general discharge of explosives and the firing of guns, but no casualties have been reported.

Chinese Merchant Killed in Amoy

Hongkong, July 29.—Reuter's dispatch states the situation at Amoy is not quiet. A Chinese merchant known to be friendly to the British was shot and killed yesterday and the Chinese secretary of the Municipal Council was wounded.

There is an unconfirmed report that a general strike has been declared to take effect on Saturday.

APPROPRIATIONS FOR WARSHIP BUILDING COME TO A VOTE

British Government Expects Substantial Majority in Commons For Construction

London, July 29.—Debate on the appropriations for the Government's warship building programme is to be continued in the Commons to-day and it is considered probable the House will pass them by a majority approximating that of last night when an amendment offered by Ramsay MacDonald, former Labor Premier, condemning the construction plans was voted down 276 to 140.

TELLING BLOW DEALT

Although the Government's big majority in the Commons enabled it to defeat the MacDonald amendment, it is generally conceded the "economy minister" dealt some telling blows and the opposition newspapers are making much out of it. Winston Churchill, Chancellor of the Exchequer, is particularly scored for his alleged submission to the coercion of his colleagues and defending a cruiser building policy to which he was originally opposed.

It was only recently that the long-drawn-out struggle within the Cabinet between the supporters of the Admiralty and the economy party ended in triumph for the former. The Cabinet decided that four new cruisers should be laid down in the current financial year ending next March 31, and after that three cruisers a year during the life of the present Parliament. The economy group, of which Mr. Churchill was supposed to be the head, had strenuously opposed committing the country to a building programme in future years, but the Chancellor yielded following threats of resignation by the First Lord of the Admiralty, W.C. Bridgeman, and the Sea Lords.

There is plenty of support for the Government so far as last night's debate is concerned.

SHIPS WEARING OUT

In justification of the ship building programme, it is argued the existing ships are fast wearing out, and emphasis is made on Mr. Bridgeman's contention that if Great Britain should not lay down cruisers this year she would have only seven of her war design compared with eighteen of the United States, twenty-one of Japan and nine of France.

The remark of Rear-Admiral Suster, Superintendent of Aircraft Construction, that there might be friction between Japan and the United States and that "we might be dragged into it the same way as the United States was dragged into the Great War," is being commented on, but the hint of danger from the United States naval power in the Pacific have not attracted special notice. It is pointed out they were uttered by navy enthusiasts having no political influence outside of their own constituents.

NEW TAXES

During the debate last night Ramsay MacDonald made the plea that it was unnecessary to inflict additional expenditure of $3,000,000 on an already tax-overburdened country, adding there was absolutely nothing to indicate a war for many years.

AUSTRALIA'S CRUISERS

Mr. Bridgeman, First Lord of the Admiralty, evoked cheers by a reference to Australia's generosity in laying down two cruisers. Ramsay MacDonald said surely these were not replacements, and Mr. Bridgeman replied they were to help strengthen the Empire.

Sloop Katha Won George Cup

Toronto, July 29.—The Watertown, N.Y., champion yacht Katha won her third consecutive race and the George Cup, emblematic of the Class R. yachting championship of Lake Ontario, when she defeated Nayada, Toronto, and Rogue, Rochester, N.Y., in the final of the series to-day. The race to-day was twice around a triangular course of three miles each leg.

The finish time was: Katha 2:59:35; Nayada 3:01:35; Rogue 3:05:05. The cup will now pass on to Katha from the defending Nayada. The series on points was: Katha 9, Rogue 5, Nayada 4. Miss Elizabeth Ryan of England conquered Miss Mary K. Browne of Santa Monica, Calif., 4-6, 6-2, 6-4, thereby earning the right to meet Miss Willis in the final match Saturday.

Vincent Richards eched the finals of the men's singles when he defeated R. Norris Williams of Philadelphia 7-5 and 6-4 in the first of the semi-finals.

Folks
WHATEVER the first advertisement, advertising is old as history. When folks know something worth talking about, they naturally talk about it; and folks were folks ten thousand years ago. Verbal pictures became pictures on cave, totem pole, tent—then on paper.

Advertisers to-day are folks too. They want to give you easy knowledge about something worth knowing about. They let you take in, with one sweep of the eye, the meaning of an advertisement. Product, style, size, price. What they tell through advertisements has made all the difference between you in your comfortable home . . . and the cave-dweller in his stone.

Do you read their messages—always? They can lift you to greater progress.

VANCOUVER ISLAND NEWS

CRUISING PARTIES POINT TO FURTHER ACQUISITIONS SOON OF TIMBER LANDS ON ISLAND

Considerable Demand for Limits in Comox, Cowichan and Alberni. Districts Reports E. & N. Agent; Must be Manufactured Before Shipment.

The combined announcements of D. C. Coleman, vice-president Canadian Pacific Railway Western lines that all timber lands sold within the E. & N. grant on Vancouver Island and that of the land agent for the E. & N. Railway that there is considerable demand at the present time for limits in the Comox, Cowichan and Alberni districts provide ground for well-founded optimism on the Island's future development. Supporters of the argument that standing timber on Vancouver Island should be manufactured into lumber here view the announcements with considerable satisfaction. They foresee not only a realization of the vast timber stands but the establishment of many mills employing Vancouver Island workmen.

The Western Lumberman in a Vancouver Island issue points out that there is 1,000,000 acres of choicest timber in the E. & N. belt still unsold. In the course of an article on the subject it states:

TOWN SPRINGS UP

Renewed activity in the northern section of the Esquimalt and Nanaimo Railway's land grant on Vancouver Island is now in evidence as a result of the recent acquisition by the Great Central Sawmills Limited of 10,000 acres of rare timber lands in and around Great Central Lake. As a result of this deal, which was one of the largest in the history of the lumber industry in British Columbia, the little town of Great Central is fast springing up at Boad, Langson, and the E. & N. Railway has already completed the six miles of extension into this point from the Alberni branch of its line. With the construction of the lumber company's mill, the building of railway sidings and other necessary extensions, Vancouver Island's latest industrial city is rapidly taking shape.

EIGHTY MILLS

"There are now eighty mills on Vancouver Island, about thirty of which have a daily capacity of 25,000 feet or more, which are feeding lumber and various lumber products into markets in all parts of the world in addition to a heavy domestic trade. Reconstruction in Europe since the war has built up a large export cargo business from Vancouver Island and there is also a good steady demand for British Columbia lumber products in Australia, New Zealand, India,

South Africa, Egypt, China and Japan, with occasional shipment to South America.

"The development of the lumber industry on Vancouver Island is closely linked up with the history of the Island's original railway, the E. & N., running between Nanaimo and the City of Victoria and which is now subsidiary to the Canadian Pacific Railway.

"Of the vast timber lands granted to the original E. & N. Railway by the crown by way of subvention for the construction of the original main line from Victoria to Nanaimo, about 1,000,000 acres are still unsold. Officials of the E. & N. Railway have recently made the interesting and important announcement that in future all timber lands sold within these grants will be disposed of with the understanding that the timber cut should be manufactured into lumber on the Island, which should prove a powerful feature in attracting capital towards the development of lumbering and other industries within Vancouver Island's finest belt of standing timber.

"At the present time the E. & N. Railway has a cruising party north of the Nanaimo River and Lakes, and it is expected that this season will see the completion of this particular piece of work. Last year the area south of the Nanaimo River and Lakes containing upwards of 50,000 acres, was cruised and found to contain nearly 1,000,000 feet of excellent timber, of which over seventy per cent is fir.

There is considerable demand for limits in the Comox, Cowichan and Alberni districts, according to Newton J. Ker, land agent for the company, to whom all inquiries relative to E. & N. land sales should be directed at Victoria.

Lake Cowichan News

Lake Cowichan, July 30.—The laying of steel on the C.N.R. to Cottonwood is progressing rapidly. It is reported that the Campbell River Logging Company will continue the line from Cottonwood to Shaw Creek. This will open up a further large tract of timber.

Out of 170 applications Mrs. B. McColl has been chosen to fill the position of teacher of the Lake Cowichan Public School.

The Bishop of Columbia and Mrs. Schofield have been spending a short holiday at the lake. On Sunday the bishop held a service at the school house.

On Monday Mr. Walter Ainsbee of Liverpool, England, well-known lecturer to children, who has just returned from a successful tour in the United States, spoke at a special service for children.

A picnic for the children to Maple Bay has been arranged for Thursday. Visitors and tourists are taking advantage of the beautiful weather.

SAYS JAPAN LACKS STEEL WAR SUPPLIES

Williamstown, Mass., July 30.—Statements made by Japanese unable to make war for lack of steel, and that Poland was unwilling to reduce her army until better assured of her safety from aggression, were made by Foreign Minister Alexander Skrzynski, was Poland's spokesman. The assertion regarding Japan was made by Professor Charles K. Leith of the University of Wisconsin at a round-table discussion on "mineral resources as a world factor."

TWO THEORIES
"We are all eager to see disarmament brought about," Count Skrzynski said, "and there is no question that another European war would mean the end of civilization. But there are two theories as to disarmament, one that it comes first and will bring peace, and the other that security from war must be assured before disarmament can come."

"Poland once subscribed to the former theory, in the Eighteenth Century, and it cost her her independence. The Polish army was reduced in the hope that a pacific policy would bring peace. Instead, Prussia, Russia and Austria saw an opportunity and jumped on Poland and helped themselves to her territory."

JAPAN'S LACK
With the great steel producing areas of the world controlled by the United States, Great Britain and France through the latter's control of the Ruhr district, this particular "sin of war" was lacking in Japan, Professor Leith maintained, nor was she in a position to develop a steel producing centre from the latent ore in China or the Philippines.

Japan could find coal enough in China, which has the second largest coal reserve in the world, but it was in iron ore that Japan was most lacking, and this was fatal. Since steel played such a vital part in modern civilization, Professor Leith said, the dearth of mineral resources in the East removed Japan as a war threat, for a nation could not have great war power without great industrial power.

THOSE CRUISERS

IT WAS A FOREGONE conclusion that if the Admiralty succeeded in persuading the British Cabinet to indorse its requisition for more fighting craft, the majority which Mr. Baldwin is able to command in the House of Commons would authorize the programme. Last night's vote virtually disposes of the question as far as Parliament is concerned. The Labor and Liberal Opposition members lodged their protest and anti-Government newspapers will use up a good deal of space in their efforts to convince the people that there is nothing in the nature of a naval threat to warrant the expenditure of $290,000,000 on new ships at the present time. Additional debate in the House will furnish nothing more than "copy" for the daily press. The Government and its supporters are apparently united.

One of the most interesting and surprising developments of last night's vote, and the discussion which preceded it, was the attitude adopted by the Chancellor of the Exchequer. Mr. Churchill informed the House that he considered the programme which the Government had presented to Parliament provided no more than any reasonable man would regard as necessary for "the sober yet solid defence of our permanent naval position." This declaration from the Chancellor is surely in striking contrast with his earlier pledges of economy and his more recent attitude towards the Admiralty's demands. Only a few days ago cable dispatches hinted at the possibility of at least one Cabinet resignation, and possibly the resignation of one or two distinguished Admirals, unless Mr. Bridgman should be successful in wearing down Mr. Churchill's opposition to the cruiser programme. No doubt the general public will be curious to know why the Chancellor changed his mind. Or it may be recalled that he has been known to adapt himself to circumstances several times during his political and parliamentary career.

Supporters of the construction proposals point out that the building of new cruisers at this stage will absorb a good deal of idle labor in the various industries involved. They justify their support of the policy on this ground and look upon the expenditure as an investment that will pay dividends in the shape of a smaller unemployed list. Opponents take the ground that the country can not afford to spend any money on undertakings which are not immediately necessary, that there is nothing on the international horizon to demand new war vessels at this stage, that satisfaction of the Admiralty's request will have an unfavorable effect upon other nations with fleets near in size to that of Britain.

Doubtless much will be heard from those who are apprehensive lest there shall be a renewal of competition in armaments. In this connection it is pointed out that if the United States should feel inclined to build a navy as big as some of the republic's big-navy advocates suggest, our neighbor to the South is financially strong enough to launch such a programme without feeling it any more than Britain will feel the new $290,000,000 burden. This is, of course, an unlikely development. But other nations must be considered. And it should be remarked that as armaments grow, suspicion will grow; quarrels are bred by the ability to fight.

MR. STEVENS IS FUNNY

EVERY TIME MR. H. H. Stevens, Federal member for Vancouver Centre, makes a political speech he unwittingly illuminates his gloomy outlook with a little humor. For instance, he told a gathering of Conservatives in Vancouver yesterday that a high protective tariff would correct our "depressed conditions," and that he would say to the United States: "Either you double your purchases from us or we shall divert our purchases from you to others." Mr. Stevens likes facts and figures no better than his Conservative colleagues. It is not convenient for him to remember that Canada's purchases from the United States in 1918 were greater in value than our sales to the republic by no less than $350,515,205. It pleases him just as little to recall the fact that in the year 1920 and again in 1921—the end of Tory and high tariff government—the adverse balance under Mr. Meighen's policies stood at more than $300,000,000. Nobody would expect the Vancouver member to mention that it was not until 1922 that the deficit reached anywhere near $200,000,000, a figure that was further reduced in the two following years—when the King Government's policies began to make an impression—to something like $160,000,000. This had decreased in the last fiscal year to $101,499,459, while, by taking the year ending on May 31 last, the deficit for that period had dropped to just a little more than $80,000,000. Quite a difference between that and the $300,000,000 adverse balances for the last two years of Tory rule!

The thing that Mr. Stevens does not realize is that the very policy which he would advocate is the policy which was responsible for our buying more from and selling less to the United States. The figures prove this contention.

IRRIGATION

IN THIS MORE EQUABLE climate we give little thought to the question of irrigation. It is usually regarded as a subject in which the people of the dry belt are primarily concerned. To a very large extent that is true. At the same time in less than a quarter of a century from now the development of irrigation schemes in many parts of the dry and sunny interior will have added a considerable amount of agricultural prosperity to British Columbia.

Ten years ago great stretches of land in those sections where the annual precipitation does not exceed more than eight inches looked like the desert or the sands of the seashore. Then came the irrigation ditch. Some of the moisture reached the parched lands through scientifically constructed channels. Much of it flowed through primitive troughs fashioned by Oriental hands. Patches of watered land changed from yellow to emerald green and those harvests of sand are now harvests of green edibles.

One remarkable point to be remembered about this uninviting straw-colored land is that it can obtain water at the proper time. While it is true that there is much land in this Province that is assured of a natural supply of moisture all the year round, it is none the less true that there are thousands and thousands of sandy acres that could be made to produce their quota of food products. These things are known to the members of the Western Canada Irrigation Association which is holding its nineteenth annual convention in the city of Kelowna this week. This body's work is to be commended.

GLADSTONE

THROWING JAVELINS into the social strata, making the present an age for political apologies, seems to have become an obsession with social and political Britain. The latest is a stirring of the ashes of William Ewart Gladstone by Captain Peter Wright. He writes that the "Grand Old Man" of his day was not all that people supposed he was. The offspring of that famous statesman have picked up the verbal game and nasty names are being used. As an impartial view, that of Arthur Brisbane, the well-known American writer, who knew Gladstone well, is worth reading. Here it is:

Why Gladstone's sons should notice the statement of a "liar, coward and fool" is not clear. This writer used to see Gladstone every day in the fighting prime of his old age, and can testify that Gladstone had little time for foolishness.

Every night he sat on the opposite bench as late as 3 o'clock in the morning, in the House of Commons. And in the ladies' gallery, where the women sat, hidden from sight by a heavy screen, that night might not distract lawmakers, there sat, when the weather was bad, Mr. Gladstone's aged wife, staying in the House as long as he did. She met him at the entrance, under the clock tower, with a heavy woollen muffler, wrapped it around his neck and took him home. If there ever was a man whose memory never faded, it was Gladstone, of whom it was truly said that "his heart was ever with the weak and miserable poor."

Until now there never has been a single suggestion to the contrary.

WHO'S WHO IN HISTORY TO-DAY

THURSDAY, JULY 30

SAMUEL ROGERS
English poet, was born on July 30, 1763. His house in London was famous as a literary centre. Among his works are "Pleasures of Memory," "Voyage of Columbus," and "Human Life."
THOMAS GRAY
Celebrated English poet, died at Cambridge on July 30, 1771. His "Elegy Written in a Country Churchyard" is perhaps the most quoted poem in the English language. Other works include "Ode," "Progress of Poesy," and "The Bard." He is numbered among the few English poets who have refused the laureate'ship.

DENIS DIDEROT
French philosopher and writer, died at Paris on July 30, 1784. His greatest work is "The Encyclopedia," detailing in twenty-eight volumes, written during a period of two years, the results of scientific research in the middle of the eighteenth century. In this work he was associated with the mathematician d'Alembert.
GEORGE EDWARD PICKETT
Confederate general in the Civil War, died at Norfolk, Va., on July 30, 1875. A graduate of West Point, he served in the Mexican War, and was a captain in the United States army until he entered the Confederate service. At the battle of Gettysburg he led one of the most gallant and one of the most disastrous charges of all times.

RIFFIANS PLANNING QUEZZAN DRIVE

Ex. July 30—Abdel-Krim, directing the plans of the rebellious Riffians, is getting ready, according to latest indications, to play his last card in the shape of a drive on the Holy City of Ouezzan, about sixty miles northwest of his objective, Fez.

The French command, however, is doing everything necessary to deal with the expected drive, speeding reinforcements to vital points, posting heavy artillery around Ouezzan, constructing defences and sending squadrons of tanks and armed cars en masse from which they can be sent rapidly where needed.

DETAILS OF SMASH ON WHAT HEARD IN MORNING COURT

Charged With Driving to Common Danger, Vancouver Driver Appears

Following the accident of July 22, when a hired touring car, with six lady occupants crashed over the Malahat Drive, the action against Fred J. Earle of Vancouver for driving to the common danger, was commenced in the provincial police court this morning before Magistrate George Jay. One by one, four lady occupants of the hired car, two of whom were visitors from Toronto, told the story of the accident.

In the important details of the story the evidence given by the ladies was as close to their side of the road as it was possible to be with safety. They were travelling, it was testified, at a reasonable rate of speed, between fifteen and twenty miles per hour.

As a result of the impact of the two cars, it was asserted, the steering apparatus was so damaged that it turned sharply to the left, thus forcing the car to jump a log that bordered the roadway and plunge down the steep bank for about fifty feet.

FORESTRY ORDERS TO BE PRODUCED IN COLLEY ACTION

Arguments in Supreme Court Chambers To-day

An adjournment until three o'clock issued by the forest branch at Barrier of the Department of Lands and Forestry, was ordered by Mr. Justice Murphy in Supreme Court Chambers this morning following the examination for discovery last week of J. R. Colley, Kamloops member of the Provincial Legislature on allegations that he has been connected with Government work while a member of the House.

H. B. Robertson, K.C., and R.H. Green pressed for the production of the documents and for the Wilson ledger sheet in Mr. Colley's books, claiming that without these it was impossible to examine Mr. Colley on his affidavit.

H. L. Maclean, K.C., with Carew Martin appeared for Mr. Colley. An application to amend statement of claim had been made. Mr. Maclean argued, and since there had been two examinations of Mr. Colley, they have now served as a demand that we produce three orders issued by the forestry branch at Barrier.

We have not these orders. They they said they would have this examination adjourned until they were produced with the books from which they came. An affidavit from Mason, the Government surveyor who signed the orders, was then demanded. He submitted it was doubtful if he could call for those books.

He also asked for the original ledger sheet in Mr. Colley's books under the name Wilcox, saying the copy which had been supplied was not sufficient.

"I think you should produce the original ledger sheet and any vouchers you have," said Mr. Justice Murphy.

Purchasing orders was granted. Whether there will be any Dempsey bout prior to September of next year, however, remains to be seen. Nothing has been done about the proposed bout at Michigan City next September.

U.S. Loans to South Americans Are Slowed up

New York, July 30—High prices which foreign producers are receiving for coffee and rubber are causing United States bankers to tighten the purse strings on loans to those industries. Efforts of the State of Sao Paulo, Brazil, to obtain a loan of $30,000,000 to $40,000,000 for coffee valorization have struck snag in Wall Street and it is understood any financing which might be desired for rubber-producing industries in Brazil colonies might also encounter difficulties.

Such loans, in the view of United States bankers, would tend in effect to maintain high prices which United States consumers are now forced to pay.

Cameron is Placed Second in Several Events at Toronto

Toronto, July 30.—One of the last representations in years, including not only members of Hamilton, Montreal, Ottawa, Winnipeg and Vancouver forces, but seven members of the New York police force, made up a total field of forty-two at the annual Toronto Police A.A.A. meet at Hurlingham Point yesterday. Benedict of New York, the all-round champion of the meet, led in the 100 yards, the 220, the standing broad jump, taking a second in the running broad and two-thirds. P. C. Smith of Toronto won the local championship.

Pat McDonald, New York, four times Olympic star, had little trouble in winning the fifty-six-pound weight high throw and established a new Canadian record of 16 feet 2 inches. Cameron, Vancouver, was the only Westerner to get into the prize money, taking second prize in the sixteen-pound hammer throw, the sixteen-pound shot and the discus.

Duncan Will Open Four-day Tennis Tournament Aug. 5

Special to The Times
Duncan, July 30.—The Duncan Lawn Tennis Club's annual open tournament will take place on August 5, 6, 7 and 8. This tournament determines the championship of Vancouver Island in men's singles, present holder George Spurling of Vancouver, and the championship of Vancouver Island in ladies' singles, present holder, Miss Lawson of Victoria. There will also be men's doubles, ladies' doubles and mixed doubles. Entries must be in the hands of the secretary of the club not later than 6 p.m. on August 3. Entrants from clubs outside the district must be required to play until Thursday morning, August 6. Three new courts have been added to the club this year, thus making seven courts all of which are in excellent condition.

With this number of courts there should be no difficulty in running off the tournament quite easily, although a large number of entries are expected.

Dempsey and Kearns Divide Their Spoils And Say Good-bye

Los Angeles, July 30.—Jack Dempsey has another conference with Jack Kearns yesterday at the conclusion of which it was announced that the real estate holdings of the champion and his manager had been divided and an agreement reached insuring Kearns his split of the profits of any Dempsey bout prior to September, 1925.

Whether there will be any Dempsey bout prior to September of next year, however, remains to be seen. Nothing has been done about the proposed bout at Michigan City next September.

Dempsey has not signed to fight Greb at Michigan City and does not intend to, added Benton, who is the champion's spokesman. "No article was sent to him to sign; nothing definite was done about the proposed Greb match and as a result Dempsey has decided that if he fights anyone at all in September it will not be Greb."

"There is only one definite bout on Dempsey's programme and that is the bout in which he has agreed to meet Harry Wills in the Fall of 1925."

YOUNG BOB GETS OFFER

Newark, N.J., July 30.—Hughie Garland, manager of Bob Fitzsimmons Jr., heavyweight boxer, and son of the late former champion, announced to-night that he had received to-day a telegram offering a $10,000 purse to Fitzsimmons to meet Gene Tunney, contender for Jack Dempsey's crown, in San Francisco. The telegram was signed by Harry Morrison of the Mission Club in San Francisco.

Vancouver, July 30.—Jack Reddick, Canadian middle and light heavyweight champion, has been matched to meet Jimmy Slattery in Buffalo early in September, it was announced to-day. On August 12 the Canadian champion will meet Marine Ranarie at Tacoma and on August 17 is scheduled to box Bob Fox at Seattle.

Reddick has been training in the Capilano Canyon at North Vancouver for some time.

Scouts Stop Forest Fire by Promptness

Rutland Troop Quells Okanagan Blaze at Critical Time

Carrying out the training in preparedness given to them through the guidance of the scoutmaster and Scoutmaster Gray, the assistant scoutmaster having investigated the nature of the blaze, reported same as serious and the Scouts, under the guidance of the scoutmaster and Mr. Chambers, president of the Rutland branch of the Boy Scouts' Association, immediately went to the scene and worked for over four hours before they got the fire under control.

This occurred just before the boys, who were camped about half a mile away, were to have supper, but without delay the "alarm" was sounded by Scoutmaster Gray. The assistant scoutmaster having investigated the nature of the blaze, reported same as serious and the Scouts, under the guidance of the scoutmaster and Mr. Chambers, president of the Rutland branch of the Boy Scouts' Association, immediately went to the scene and worked for over four hours before they got the fire under control.

Each patrol of the troop then took it in turns to watch, as a tree was blazing and could not be put out. One of the patrol leaders was up to his knees in water for a long time filling buckets, etc. When it was thought safe to leave, the guard was withdrawn, but the tree was burning under observation at intervals until eventually it was chopped down, and the blaze, which was inside it, drenched with water.

By their prompt action the troop prevented what might have been a very bad forest fire, as everything was as dry as tinder and there was much scope for the blaze to do a great amount of damage.

When the fire burned heard that the scouts were at the scene he left them to it, as his hands were full fighting a big fire on the mountains across the lake.

The people of Okanagan Centre are loud in their praise of the work done by the Rutland Troop, and of their pluck. Though such acts are all in the day's work for a Scout and are "good turns" for which no payment may be accepted, a citizen of Okanagan Centre has handed a donation to the Rutland secretary to be used in the furtherance of the Boy Scout movement.

Horse Racing

Vancouver, July 30.—Vancouver Polo Club handicap over one mile and seventy yards, feature event of yesterday's races at Brighouse Park, was won by Worthmore, who had a lead of three-quarters of a length. Liquor Test Case Soon in Ontario

Toronto, July 30.—Ontario druggists, who in the past few weeks have suffered the loss of their alcohol stocks through the activities of the Ontario License Board, may bring a test case to determine their rights in keeping a supply of this fluid when used for dispensing prescriptions. The Toronto Evening Telegram says. It is known the License Board has asked the Attorney-General's department for an interpretation of the Ontario Temperance Act as it affects druggists under the act. Some druggists contend they are entitled to have alcohol for trade purposes without a permit from the board.

HOLDUP WAS CAUSE OF THREE DEATHS

Two Robbers and Chicago Hotel Cashier Lost Lives as Result of Fight

Chicago, July 29.—Four masked robbers who attempted to hold up the Drake Hotel, an exclusive Lake Shore Drive hostelry here, during the tea hour yesterday afternoon, precipitated a battle between the robbers, hotel detectives and policemen that resulted in the deaths of two of the robbers and the hotel cashier.

Another of the robbers was captured after a terrific battle in the hotel kitchen, and a fourth escaped in an automobile, left running at the curb, with $18,000 of the hotel's money snatched from the safe and till while bullets whizzed about his head.

The robbery, one of the most daring in many years, was perpetrated by men under the influence of narcotic drugs, the police said after examining the captured robber and questioning hotel employees who described the holdup men as "either drunk or dopey."

One of the holdup men was shot several miles from the hotel after he had commandeered a taxicab, forced a woman from the car and commanded the driver, at the point of a pistol, to speed away with him.

The taxi driver wrecked his machine deliberately in order to allow pursuing policemen to overtake the robber.

The man who was captured gave his name as Jack Holmes and said he had recently come here from New York.

The robber killed in the taxicab chase is said to have been Eric Nelson, former employee of the hotel, and the man shot in front of the hostelry was identified as "Tex" Cortez, who came here a few days ago from Sweetwater, Texas.

The hotel cashier, and head clerk, Frank Rodke, was shot in the abdomen and died in a short time.

Life will taste sweeter

When that Corn is gone

A corn isn't just a pain—it's a drain. A tax on the whole nervous system. A blight, not alone on the toe, but on the spirits and the disposition. Doctors know that a corn can darken a man's whole viewpoint on life. Headache, fatigue, irritability and indigestion are reflexes of a throbbing corn. "Pain-messages" shoot to every nerve center, when a corn starts broadcasting. . . If you would know blissful relief, apply Blue-jay to that burning corn. In ten seconds, the world will seem a better place to live in. . . A tiny cushion—cool as velvet—fits over the corn and stops the pain at once. You wear it two days in solid comfort. When you take it off, the corn comes with it—gently removed by the little brown disc of magic medication.

THE QUICK AND GENTLE WAY TO END A CORN

ALL UNITED STATES TO FEEL EVOLUTION WAR

By GENE COHN

DAYTON, Tenn., July 30.—A few years ago it was "Pussyfoot" Johnson, and prohibition.

Now you begin to hear of "Deacon" Martin and anti-evolution.

Dr. T. T. Martin is his full name—a small man with a great shock of white hair, upon which perches a southern colonel's well-bent campaign hat.

"Field Secretary of the Anti-evolution League of America" is his title, and here, in the storm centre of the evolution-teaching fight, he has gathered the generals, field marshals and high privates of his league in preparation for a march on the rest of the United States as soon as Tennessee has settled its question.

ORGANIZING ELSEWHERE

Already organization is under way in great Middle West agricultural sections and the South-west.

In Dayton its banners scream at those who gather in the courtyard with such slogans as "Hell in the High School." In Dayton the major-domos of this organization have sent forth manifestos and resolutions condemning evolutionary teaching.

Who is this man, and how did his movement start?

"Did you ever hear of Blue Mountain, Mississippi?" he begins. "Well, that's the place. It's a little town about the size of Dayton, not far from Memphis.

"It's a town fifty years old, and in that time there has never been a divorce nor a murder.

And why is it so? Because we have devout people, who lead a religious life.

"We don't have to have blue laws there because the people won't stand for the things that make blue laws necessary.

"Once a motion picture was shown there, but the people put a quick stop to it. There are no dances and no carnal games.

"Not because of legislation—that isn't needed. We just don't want them. There are two colleges there and we substitute clean games for cards and dances and movies.

"I was a professor of science at Baylor University, Texas, for many years, and when I talk science and evolution I don't go at it fanatically, but scientifically.

"I show them that here is a theory that scientists have not established and can't establish, and I show it in the words of scientists. I show that scientists can't agree. And that's the way we carry on our fight—no ranting or fanaticism to it.

ALWAYS READY TO FIGHT

"If they want special schools for evolution teaching, go ahead, say we, but our fight is aimed at schools supported by state taxes and I'm always ready to be called into the field to meet in debate or argument scientist, or non-scientist. Yessir!"

The shock of white hair bobs in the wind as he shakes his head by way of emphasis.

"What we need is more towns like Blue Mountain—where they don't know crime or divorce, and where the boys and girls get good, clean games."

And there you have the general of this new "anti" army, which just now is creating no end of talk from one end of the country to the other.

Of course, there is William Jennings Bryan to carry greater prestige, but Dr. Martin says he isn't a Bryanite and that Bryan wasn't particularly anxious to have him come to Dayton—but here he is, anyhow, and tomorrow he and his evangelists will be in the other states "starting something."

Game to the Finish

How do you feel after the game?

No doubt you're perky enough at the start; but at the end of three long and hard-fought sets—do you still feel fit enough to jump the net, or are you too limp to do more than stagger to the nearest chair?

It's all a matter of your staying power, and your staying power depends on the working of your inner-mechanism.

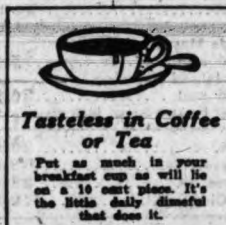

That's where Kruschen comes in. Kruschen is a combination of the six vital salts that Nature demands for the body's perfect health. What the "little daily dimself" does is to keep your blood pure, your liver and kidneys working regularly and efficiently, your whole system tuned up to the highest pitch of efficiency.

No other salts can do this for you because only in Kruschen do you get the six vital salts in their correct proportion. Kruschen is gentle and pleasant both in its action and in its effects.

That tiny pinch you take each morning in your breakfast cup of coffee or tea—you can't taste it but its effects are wonderful. All the waste matter that has been clogging your system and making you tired is gently but surely expelled. New, pure blood is sent coursing through your body, making you tingle with health in every fibre of your being.

Remember—it's the little daily dimself that does it! It costs you but half a cent a day to acquire and maintain "that Kruschen feeling"—that glorious sense of perfect fitness, from the crown of your head to the tips of your toes. Is it not well worth it?

Kruschen Salts

Good Health for Half a Cent a Day

A 16c bottle of Kruschen Salts contains 160 doses—enough for six months—which means bounding health for less than half a cent a day. The dose prescribed for daily use is one pinch.

For adults is "as much as will be on a 10 cent pinch," taken in your breakfast cup of coffee or tea. Every drugstore sells Kruschen. Get a 16c bottle to-day.

DIVORCE GRANTED TO NORTHERN MAN

Edmonton, July 30.—Judge Dubuc has granted the first divorce ever given in the Far North. Sitting at Fort Smith, Judge Dubuc heard the application of Ernest Gowen, Hudson's Bay Company post manager at Fort Goodhope, for a divorce on the usual statutory grounds. A decree nisi, to become absolute in three months, was granted.

Fort Goodhope is on the Mackenzie River, 1,600 miles north of Edmonton.

Brighter Breakfasts - Brighter Days

Quaker Puffed Wheat and Quaker Puffed Rice give variety and change

MONOTONOUS meals make monotonous days. The whole family welcomes variety. Quaker Puffed Grains brighten breakfasts and break the dullness of routine meals.

Children and grown-ups like these delicious, crisp grain bubbles. The children, because they think they are confections; the grown-ups, because of their alluring flavour and goodness.

Quaker Puffed Grains are just whole grains thoroughly cooked and puffed to eight times normal size. All the bran, carbohydrates and minerals of the whole grain are there.

Served with milk or cream vitamins are added, making a food appealing in flavour and easily digested.

Your grocer keeps Quaker Puffed Rice and Quaker Puffed Wheat. For variety's sake, most people have a package of each on the pantry shelf.

BEDTIME STORY

Uncle Wiggily Makes a Box

Copyright, 1925, by McClure Newspaper-Syndicate.

(By Howard R. Garis)

Uncle Wiggily was down in the cellar of his hollow stump bungalow one day, looking for a head of cabbage, when Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy called to him, asking:

"Is there a box down there, Uncle Wiggily?"

"A box? What sort of a box?" inquired the rabbit gentleman. "Do you mean a box of matches or a box of candy? I don't see either one."

"I'm too busy to play jokes with you," laughed Nurse Jane. "I must give the dishes their morning bath."

"There's some one in the box!" exclaimed Mrs. Longears. "Get the Police Dog and let him open it. It may be the Bushy Bear!"

But when the Police Dog came dashing up in his auto, and opened the box with his club, who do you suppose was inside? Why, Uncle Wiggily, of course! Out hopped the bunny gentleman himself.

And put some dust on the piano. Oh, no—I mean take dust off the piano. But I have no time for jokes! Your new wife wants a box in which she can send away some of the little rabbit children's old clothes. She is going to send them to the orphan asylum."

"What?" cried Uncle Wiggily, hopping up the cellar stairs. "You don't mean that Mrs. Longears is going to send our forty-seven little bunny boys and girls to the orphan asylum?"

"No! No!" laughed Nurse Jane. "Only their old clothes that they have outgrown. Some of the poor little orphan rabbits have very ragged clothes, and we always send them those we no longer use. But a box is wanted in which to pack them."

"Oh, a packing box?" cried Uncle Wiggily. "Now I understand. Well, I will look for one." He rummaged around in the cellar, but no box could he find, so he said: "I will make one."

"Can you make a box?" asked his new wife, who was sorting out the good, but old, clothes for the little orphan bunnies.

"Of course I can make a box," answered the bunny uncle as he listened to the jolly, laughing voices of the little rabbit boys and girls playing in the woods, fields and meadows. "I will take some boards and nail them together with the long, sharp thorns from the prickly pear tree."

No sooner said than done. Bringing up from the cellar some boards, Uncle Wiggily began fitting them together to hold the clothing for the little orphan rabbits.

Noon time came, and Tooter and Scooter, Skipper and Nipper, Jingle and Jangle and all the other little forty-seven rabbits hopped home to lunch.

"But where is Daddycum Uncle Wiggily?" asked Weezie.

"He is out in the yard, building a box," answered her mother. "Please call him in to lunch. I suppose he was so busy he didn't hear the lunch bell."

Weezie looked from the window, but she did not see Uncle Wiggily. "The box is in the yard, but not Daddycum," said the bunny girl.

"Oh, well," perhaps he had to go the forest for more wood, or to the thicket for more thorns from the prickly pear tree to use as nails," said Nurse Jane.

But just then Scooter, who had skipped out into the yard near the box, came rushing back, crying:

"There's somebody in that box! Somebody is in it!" he gasped. "I guess it must be the Fuzzy Fox or the Wootie Wolf. And they're hollering to be let out!"

"Nonsense!" laughed his mother. "There's nothing in the box. Your daddy just made it." But when she and Nurse Jane and the little rabbits went into the yard, truly enough they heard a voice crying:

"Let me out! Oh, please help me out!"

"There's some one in the box!" exclaimed Mrs. Longears. "Get the Police Dog and let him open it. It may be the Bushy Bear!"

But when the Police Dog came dashing up in his auto, and opened the box with his club, who do you suppose was inside? Why, Uncle Wiggily, of course! Out hopped the bunny gentleman himself.

"I forgot what I was doing," he said. "I nestled myself up inside the orphan box and couldn't get out. Ha! Ha! That was a joke on me!"

"Ha! Ha!" laughed all the little bunnies, for they were no longer afraid. And the Police Dog laughed also. Then he helped the bunny finish making the box, and the little orphan rabbits were very happy when it was sent to their asylum next day.

And if the lollypop doesn't try to walk out of the candy box on its one stick for a leg, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily's paper flowers.

Seattle, July 30.—Presentation of the traveling beaumont, a replica of the ancient Templar banner carried in the First Crusade to the Holy Land in 1096, came as a climax to a colorful day with the Knights Templar order, by the Western Gate Precinctory of Victoria, B.C., with a ceremony which rivaled for impressiveness the mammoth parade of the day before. A thousand plumed knights, marching to the music of massed bands, formed a living cross on the field in front of the "Way-farer" stage, which is said to be the largest in the world. A surplised choir of 300 male voices sang Prothero's "The Crusaders," and Eminence Sir Ivan Moore, preceptor of the Victoria Sir Knights, gave over the beaumont to the care of Eminence Sir Knight Harry L. Sanford, commander of Bethlehem.

A beaumont banquet last night brought together representatives of every commandery and precinctory which has guarded the banner since it was sent out on its journey in 1225.

CLEANLINESS is essential to good health. The bath removes body impurities—these invisible impurities cling to the tub; ordinary cleaning won't erase it. Sally Ann thoroughly and hygienically removes it, quickly and easily. But, that is not all—it will clean your wash-basin, tiling, faucets, windows, woodwork, etc. Sally Ann softens hard water, and refuses to scratch. Leaves the hands smooth and white.

TO-MORROW'S HOROSCOPE

By Genevieve Kemble

FRIDAY, JULY 31

According to the solar square to Saturn, it may be difficult to make any sort of headway on this day, since this figure is deemed a retarding and obstructing force. Of the most ominous degree. Misfortune and ill-health, as well as generally difficult situations, may be read from this aspect. Still, Luna in favorable aspect with Sol, Saturn and Jupiter, may mitigate the weight of the adversity, and those under an especially benignant ruling for recognition of industry and application. New ventures may prove hazardous and should be avoided. Those whose birthday it is are under a figure forecasting difficulties and obstructions, in which illness may prove a deterring force. This should be forestalled and new ventures avoided. Those in the employment of others are under good auspices for reward of industry and application. A child born on this day should be kept in the employment of others, where it has excellent prospects for advancement. In business for itself it might encounter many obstacles.

WITH PEACHES

Delicious Peach Salad

Parse and cut in half large yellow peaches. Prepare two halves for each plate. Drop halves into ice water to chill and prevent turning brown. Chop one-half cup mixed nuts, one-half cup fresh or maraschino cherries; mix with mayonnaise. Fill peaches, which has been placed on lettuce, place a puff of thick whipped cream on top and serve very cold.

Peach and Cheese Salad

Two cream cheeses, half cup finely chopped nut meats, two tablespoons of cream, half teaspoon of salt, one-quarter teaspoon of paprika; some crisp lettuce leaves; mayonnaise dressing, one teaspoon of Worcestershire sauce. Peel and halve ripe peaches; mash the cheeses, add the nuts, cream and seasonings. Spread this mixture between halves of the peaches and chill. Serve on lettuce nests with mayonnaise or French dressing to which a little Worcestershire sauce has been added.

Remember the A.O.U.W. excursion to Seattle, August 8.

SOLARIUM FUND IS AUGMENTED BY BIG FETE AT HATLEY

Colwood Women's Institute Held Successful Garden Party; 1,200 Visitors

Great stimulus was given to the project for the erection of a solarium for crippled children at Mill Bay by the very successful garden party held yesterday afternoon at Hatley Park, kindly placed at the disposal of the Colwood Women's Institute for the afternoon by Mrs. Dunsford. The affair attracted a large number of visitors to the city as well as residents, and about 1,200 patrons passed through the gates during the afternoon, conveyed from town by a veritable procession of jolly-hops and private cars.

To the natural attractions offered by the lovely gardens there were added a series of entertaining features, including selections by the Canadian Scottish band, Madame Valda, delighting the gathering with a graceful dance, an interpretation of Schubert's Rosamunde Ballet, with Miss Rita Ormiston at the piano. Mrs. W. D. Todd also contributed several songs.

Tea was served on the lawn under the refreshing shade of the huge maple trees, and was under the supervision of Mrs. H. Parker, assisted by Mrs. Spencer, Mrs. Pearson, Mrs. Hopwood, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Murray, Mrs. E. Peaty (president), and the Misses James and Scott.

Ice cream and soft drinks were popular and were in charge of Mrs. Goodall, Mrs. Finch, Miss Parker, Miss Murray and Miss Peaty. Little Miss Irene Peaty and Miss Elaine Finch sold ice cream cones.

Mrs. Burgess and the Misses Kelly were in charge of the custom at the main entrance to the grounds. The proceeds were materially augmented by the collections taken by little Jim and Joan Humphreys during the programme.

The announcement of his wedding at Montreal came as a surprise to his Vancouver friends. It was known here that his former wife, Peggy Rush, an actress, had started suit for a divorce, but until his second marriage it was not learned that a decree had been granted.

PAINTED BALBRIGGAN JUMPERS

We're not painting the lily, nowadays, but we are painting that flat, mottled cloth that looks so much like men's undershirts—Balbriggan. This thin, pliable fabric is well liked for Summer sport frocks. And the dressmakers have found it an admirable surface for painted and printed designs.

Sometimes the design is floral—bright red roses, for instance, with brighter green stems. More often the design is of a futuristic sort—blocks of indeterminate shape, or figures suggesting elephants worked out in triangles. Jumpers are in vogue in this manner more often than anything else.

FAIR INDIAN

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Peterson and family, St. Patrick Street, Oak Bay, will leave to-morrow for Patricia Bay, where they will spend the month of August in camp.

Mr. Dal Grauer and Mr. Lorne Morgan of Vancouver are spending a few days in Victoria as the guest of friends, prior to leaving for California.

"SCHUHHUM" FEET MATERIALLY IMPROVED WORK OF Y.W.C.A.

Al fresco Play Among Attractions at Delightful Affair at Miss Agnew's Yesterday

Expressing the hope that on her next visit to Victoria she would see the long-cherished dream of a new Y.W.C.A. building in actual reality, Mrs. Foster, national field secretary of the Dominion Council, formally opened the garden party held at the residence of Miss Agnew, "Schuuhum," Rockland Avenue, yesterday afternoon. The affair was arranged primarily to aid the "Y" work among girls, a project which Mrs. Foster commended heartily and wished every success. She also took occasion to congratulate the local organization on the loyal and devoted work of its directors and urged the women of the community to lend their whole-hearted support to their efforts in the interests of the young womanhood.

ALFRESCO PLAY

This official benediction was the prelude to a delightful alfresco play, "The King of Sherwood," especially written by Miss Ivy Bolton. Staged in the beautiful setting of a grove of oak trees, with the audience seated in the natural amphitheatre formed by the rocky-bordered lawn, the little play was woven around the romance of Alan-a-Dale, a minstrel, and Ellen, an heiress. Enthusiastic applause greeted the players, who acted admirably, and who included: Robin Hood, Reginald Carver; Allan-a-Dale, Miss Dorothy B. Thum; Ellen, Miss Marjorie Rosher; Sir Stephen, Philip Hughes; Thorken of the Dale, H. F. Hewitt; Dame Gertrude, Mrs. Colin Cummins; The Abbot of Furness, Lloyd Keith; Friar Tuck, N. Peterson; The Tinker, David Carey; Laughing Lips, the Jester, Kenneth McAllister; Balaam, the ass, Master Robert Carey.

OTHER ATTRACTIONS

While the play was the principal feature of the afternoon, there were numerous other attractions to tempt the purse. The warmth of the day made the garden where tea was served a popular rendezvous, and Mrs. F. C. Nixon and her helpers, Mrs. Hill and the Misses Dickinson, Tomlinson, Braund, Hill, Collis, Wootten and Garesche, experienced a rush hour, while the future decorations of blue and pink sweet peas, was suspended a rainbow with the pretty gifts concealed in the traditional pot of gold. The guests included: Mrs. F. C. Winkel, Mrs. Service, Mrs. Head, Mrs. Cowley of Ottawa, Mrs. Boyden, Mrs. Peddie, Mrs. Moody, Mrs. J. Penderay, Mrs. J. Scott, Mrs. E. Andrews, Mrs. Mabel and Dorothy Head, Annabelle Service, E. Douglas, Winnifred Boyden, Dorothy Lowe, Jessie Grant and Winnifred Winkel.

RECORD YEAR FOR TOURISTS NOW AT PEAK

Licensed Accommodation on Boats Raised to Meet Demand

Victoria, in company with other cities of the Pacific Northwest, is experiencing a record season for tourist travel, and according to Capt. J. W. Troup, head of the British Columbia Coast Stevedores here, the bulk of the tourist travel has been reached. Not since 1909, when a World's Fair at Seattle created unprecedented travel, have people in such numbers passed through this city.

BEST SINCE 1909
The season is now at its height, and people are certainly coming well, stated Capt. Troup to-day. "The Alaskan run is steadily keeping up. We put on an extra boat this year, the Princess Charlotte, and that makes three boats on that run. They go out full every time. The Princess Louise left from Vancouver last night with another large passenger list and a very large freight of lumber. It is the best season we have had since 1909, I believe."

So pronounced has been this season's travel that the licensed accommodation of several of the boats has been raised to meet the demand. Each boat is licensed to carry a definite number, and obliged by the regulations to carry sufficient equipment for each one of her licensed to normal totals, in some cases, have been insufficient to meet the demand and have been frequent.

THROUGHOUT SUMMER
If the weather holds fair until the end of September the tourist movement will continue pronounced throughout the summer. It is predicted, on the other hand, if rainy weather sets in in September it automatically shuts off a great deal of the travel that would otherwise be expected.

Over 5,000 persons were carried on boats through Victoria yesterday. Of these 1,600 arrived from Seattle and 1,000 from Vancouver. The outgoing boat to Seattle yesterday took 1,400 passengers. In addition to the triangular run steamers the automobile ferries took capacity loads, totalling well over the thousand mark for their combined figures.

CONVENTIONS
Convention delegates traveling to and from conferences in the Pacific Northwest have helped to swell the general tourist business in that many delegates take a roundabout tour on their way home, stopping off at the island for periods varying from a few days to several weeks.

In all shipping offices of the city the same story is repeated, and the prediction made at the end of the season it will be found to have been a banner one for Victoria.

SHAREHOLDERS GET COMPENSATION FOR WAR SEIZED SHIPS

Two Craft Captured by Germans Subject of Award Made By Claims Commission

St. John, N.B., July 30.—The $130,000 damages awarded by the War Claims Commission to the British Columbia Steamship Company for two vessels seized by the Germans during the Great War has been distributed among the 235 shareholders of the company, it was announced here yesterday.

FAVORABLE WEATHER FOR SAILORS' VISIT

Men of British Cruiser Cape Town See Prince Rupert; to Come South

Prince Rupert, July 30.—Many officers and men of the British cruiser Cape Town, which arrived here yesterday from Honolulu, are suffering with colds as a result of their shift from the subtropical climate of Hawaii to that of Northern British Columbia. No serious cases are reported, however, and with fine warm weather forecast for this district for several days, the sailors are expected to have an enjoyable visit before they sail for Vancouver and Victoria next Wednesday.

The Cape Town was scheduled to have arrived here on Tuesday, but was delayed by unfavorable weather encountered off the British Columbia coast. She was obliged to anchor for several hours last week on account of fog.

The cruiser is open to the public every afternoon.

Victoria Mills Develop Considerable Opening For Manufactured Products

R. M. S. Aorangi Took on Nearly 100 Tons of Doors for New Zealand Firm; Empire Press Conference Delegates Make Brief Tour of City Before Sailing.

A new business and one that shows remarkable promise has been developed by local mills in the shipment of manufactured doors to New Zealand. Outbound for Auckland yesterday in the holds of the R. M. S. Aorangi were 117 crates of doors, totaling close on 1,000 doors made by the Lemon & Gonsalon mill in this city.

The consignment is destined to one distributor in New Zealand, the firm of W. H. Grove & Company, and marks the continuation of what has become an extensive trade in manufactured wood products from B.C. timbers.

The R.M.S. Aorangi took upwards of 120 tons of cargo on this port before clearing on her fourth voyage, southbound to the Antipodes. Capt. R. Crawford was in command. The huge motorship of the Canadian-Australian Line carried a total of 431 passengers, including 237 in her first-class cabins. The Empire Press Union delegates, headed by Viscount Burnham, made up the largest party on board the ship.

The Aorangi docked at 10 o'clock last night and sailed again at 10 o'clock for sea. A fair consignment of local mails and five packages of aerial mail from Seattle went on board here.

Many prominent leaders of the British press took occasion of the stay here to step ashore and see something of the city. Not a few had acquaintanceships to renew as they had been visitors in this city on other occasions. A large crowd of people met the ship, and many of the delegates to the Empire Press Conference were whisked away by their friends on personally conducted tours of the city.

William Izard, a prominent barrister of Christchurch, New Zealand, and an uncle of E. W. Izard of this city, is returning to his home after a four weeks' stay in Victoria. With him on board, who is accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. M. Poulton, enjoyed an extensive motor tour of the island as the guest of his nephew. Many Australian and New Zealand business men are returning to their offices after brief trips to the United Kingdom via Canada.

EASTERN PARTY ARRIVES IN CITY
Leading Torontonians Enjoy Trip Across Dominion; Feted En Route

An enthusiastic group of Easterners arrived in Vancouver on Monday, several of whom left in the evening on the Prince George for the sail to Skagway, while the remainder of the party will enjoy the beauties of Vancouver and Victoria.

The trip, which was arranged by Miss Kathleen Jenkins, social secretary of the King Edward Hotel, Toronto, has been most enjoyable throughout, in large measure due to the courtesy and interest shown by the Canadian National Railways. Leaving Toronto on July 4 by the boat train to Sarnia, and the St. Noronic to Port Arthur, the travelers proceeded West in a special car to Calgary where a day at the big stampede provided an interesting diversion. Then followed nine days of motoring in the mountains between Lake Louise, the camps and Banff, and a delightful week at the Jasper Park Lodge. At Calgary the visitors were royally entertained at the Burns' Ranch by Mr. John Burns.

Those included in the trip are Mrs. W. A. Kemp, sister-in-law of Sir Edward Kemp; Miss Kathleen Kemp; Miss Mary Moseley, Moulton College; Miss Beattie Robertson; Miss Jean Harris and Miss Jenkins, all of Toronto; Mrs. H. Clay Creveling and Miss Marie Creveling, St. Louis, Mo.; Mrs. A. F. Baumann and Mr. Edward Baumann, Kitchener, Ont.

The Ss. Canadian Rover made port yesterday afternoon from San Francisco. For Victoria the Canadian Government freighter had a light consignment, and shifted to Vancouver after local discharge. The Canadian Rover plies in the regular coastal service of the line.

BLUE FUNNEL LINER TO CHANGE MASTERS

Capt. W. Hill Will Replace Capt. W. Melling on Next Run Out

Seattle, July 30.—The Blue Funnel Line steamship Achilles with Capt. W. Hill, arrived Wednesday from Vancouver, B.C., with a cargo of general cargo. She will shift to Tacoma to discharge additional cargo and to return here today. Captain Melling will be relieved by Capt. W. Hill, who is expected to arrive here next week.

An exclusive passenger list comprising the members of the Los Angeles commanderies of the Knights Templar will sail on the steamship Alameda for Southeastern Alaska points at 8 o'clock to-night. The Alameda will call at Sitka and other points not usually on the Southeastern Alaska trip. The party will include 280 Knights Templar and their wives.

RESTRICTIONS REMOVED FROM GRAIN CARGOES

Winnipeg, July 30.—Grain shipments for Vancouver will now be accepted for transportation by the railways without permits, according to an announcement from the Canadian National Railway headquarters to-day. The system heretofore of issuing of permits for grain shipments to Vancouver has been cancelled and all shipments now will be accepted without restriction.

Canadian National Will Replace Inn Destroyed by Fire

Winnipeg, July 30.—Miami Inn, one of the Canadian National Railway Summer hotels, which was destroyed by fire last month on the eve of opening, will be rebuilt on the bungalow style similar to Jasper Park Lodge.

Announcement to the effect was made today by Sir Henry W. Thornton, who states that plans will be developed immediately for the erection of the new inn on the banks of the Winnipeg River.

LIFEBOAT RESCUES MAROONED MEN WHEN LAUNCH FOUNDERS

Special to The Times
Banfield, July 29.—A dramatic rescue of the crew of the gasoline launch Ehemmo was effected by the Banfield lifeboat's crew yesterday when the failure of the Ehemmo to arrive led to apprehension for her safety.

The gasoline boat had foundered on a rock while running off course on Tuesday night, and her crew had taken to the nearest island for safety. The light of their fire led the rescue party to the lonely island where the men were marooned.

The Hillier brothers and Mr. Ferguson, all of Kildonan, when picked up on the island told of the loss of their boat, which foundered when it ran on a rock on Tuesday evening. A heavy fog covered the water at the time and the accident happened so quickly that the crew had barely time to make good their escape. The Ehemmo will be salvaged, it is said, and the men are little the worse for their experience.

GREATER WATERWAY PROJECT SUPPORTED

U.S. Congress Will be Urged to Give Attention to St. Lawrence Canal Plan

Swampscott, Mass., July 29.—A determined campaign in the next Congress for the establishment of the St. Lawrence Canal project, the Great Lakes-to-Gulf waterways scheme was launched here to-day by Senator Deneen, Republican of Illinois, who has been in conference with President Coolidge, planning to submit the project to the next session on his return to Congress.

Nation-wide interest has developed in the scheme, he said, predicting that if Congress did not endorse the project they would be carried before the National Convention in 1928.

B.C.'S LAST SALMON PACT LARGEST ON RECORD

The halibut landings of 1924 totaled 16,747,556 pounds, of which 4,456,656 pounds were landed at Canadian and United States ports by American vessels and 11,290,900 pounds by Canadian vessels at B.C. ports. The catch of 1924 was 2,975,954 pounds greater than the 1923 total. The landings at B.C. ports totaled 32,194,700 pounds, of which 20,914 pounds were landed and shipped in bond by United States vessels. Of the total landings in Canadian ports $5,974,400 pounds were landed at Prince Rupert, 2,809,200 pounds at Vancouver and 711,100 pounds at Butedale.

TREATY PRAISED

The report, comments favorably on the new Canadian-American halibut treaty, under which a joint commission was established to find means of protecting Pacific Coast halibut fisheries from depletion.

"The ratification of this treaty," the report says, "is a long step in the right direction in the administration of the fisheries in which Canada and the United States are mutually interested. It is the first acknowledgment on their part that one of their great fishing industries cannot be effectively and conservatively administered individually—that joint and uniform control is necessary."

Attention is called to the fact that nineteen salmon that were tagged by the United States Bureau of Fisheries in Alaska waters during the summer of 1924 were recaptured in the Skeena and Nass Rivers adjacent British Columbia waters. The outstanding feature of their capture in B.C. waters, so far as this province is concerned, is that in approaching the coast some of the salmon bound for the Skeena and Nass Rivers are at times associated with salmon seeking Alaska waters.

Salmon are at times associated with salmon seeking Alaska waters. The Skeena and Nass Rivers are subject to capture in Alaska fish traps as far north as Summer Strait.

Scalps were obtained from but eight of the fish recaptured in the Skeena. Dr. H. Gilbert, noted expert who examined them, states: "The results have a bearing on the question of homing on the part of fish that had been far distant from their native stream. Each of the eight were undoubtedly Skeena sockeye. Their scales coincide exactly with the scales of the Skeena salmon."

In the appendix of the report John Pease Babcock, deputy commissioner of fisheries reviews the history of the fur-seal industry and the beneficial results to Canada of the protection given the Alaska herds by the Fur Seal Treaty between Great Britain, the United States and Russia, which became effective in 1911 and which put an end to pelagic sealing.

Flies From Seattle To San Francisco In Seven Hours Odd

Eddie Hubbard Hangs up New Record for 850-mile Trip by Air in Delivery of New Boeing Aircraft to U.S. Postal Authorities; Boeing Machine Accepted for Final Tests at Chicago.

From Seattle to San Francisco in seven hours and forty minutes flying time, that is the record set up by Eddie Hubbard, veteran Victoria-Seattle air mail pilot who returned from one of his greatest triumphs to Puget Sound on Monday evening.

Hubbard took off from Sand Point, the military aviation field near Seattle at 1 p.m. on July 14, landed for the night at Eugene, Oregon, and made San Francisco next morning at 10 a.m. with a flying time of eight hours even for the trip between the two points.

On his return journey he took off from Concord, near San Francisco, at 8.10 a.m. on Monday last, landed at Eugene, Oregon at 1 p.m., resumed the air at 2.30 p.m. and dropped gently down to the level plains of Sand Point at 5.10 p.m. the same day. His time for the return journey, and it is a record that will not soon be lowered, was seven hours and forty minutes flat. The distance is 850 miles by air.

The occasion for the successful flights was the delivery of a new machine built by the Boeing interests at Seattle to the U.S. postal authorities. The aeroplane, a large biplane fitted with a 450-horsepower Liberty motor and capable of lifting 1,000 pounds of mail at a speed of 150 miles an hour through the air, passed its preliminary tests with flying colors and is now being fitted at Seattle for night flying.

Its next trip will be to Chicago, Ill. where it will go on final tests between Chicago and Monmouth, Ill. where it must be flown for 100 hours under full load.

The Times last night, as he arrived with five sacks of mail for the R.M.S. Aorangi, Eddie Hubbard gave the details of his San Francisco flight. Seven machines were submitted to the Postal Department, each by different builders. All were accepted in their preliminary tests. These machines have to be capable of a speed of 150 miles an hour under a load of 1,000 pounds of mail matter, must be capable of flying day or by night, and have a landing speed of fifty miles an hour under load. The requirements, though exacting, were met by all seven machines in the tests at San Francisco.

The Chicago tests will be a heavy duty service tests in which the running of the machines for 100 flying hours will call for any differences in their performances. The machine that wins the final test, the one that will be used for the construction of a number of such machines to enter the mail service regularly.

Incidentally to the tests Eddie Hubbard captured the flying record from San Francisco to Seattle, and adds another sack to the cargo that has been brought with such triumphs since 1910.

It is typical of the genial air mail pilot that he undertook the arduous trip over new country just after serious illness from which he is still convalescing.

Melbourne Gives Welcome to U.S. Visiting Warships

Melbourne, July 30.—Melbourne's door of hospitality again opened wide at night for the visiting warships of the United States fleet, to town and country, at the Lord Mayor's ball. Four thousand, including Admiral Robert E. Coonts and his party, were present.

The fights at the stadium attracted a special entertainment tendered them by the Australian Aero Club. Reports were received to-day from points in Northern Victoria of welcome accorded the sixty-two officers of the American navy who are touring that section by train.

Newspapers to-day say high praise to the display of "high quality" boxing given by navy fighters last night against local scrappers. The navy men were declared to have upheld their reputations as clean sportsmen.

The Victoria baseball team downed the nine from the U.S.S. Omaha yesterday, 4 to 6.

One contingent which visited Bendigo was given a great reception. The 5,000 school children singing songs of welcome.

Sport events vied with more formal social functions to-night. The fights at the stadium attracted a large crowd. The results follow: Lightweight—Billy Peeney, Victoria, outpointed Ink. Levan of the fleet.

Welterweights—Fatsy Moxier, fleet, outpointed George Gray, Victoria. Middleweight—Dan. Zimerley, fleet, fought a draw with Jim Baker, Victoria. Heavyweight—Dan Stewart, Victoria, knocked out Bob Jones, fleet, second round.

All of the bouts were scheduled for six rounds.

THREE VESSELS CHANGE OWNERS

San Francisco, July 28.—Sale of the steam schooners Hoguam and Tahoe by Bowes and Andrews to J. R. Christie, and the schooner Griffon to Charles Watson & Co. by James Griffiths & Son is announced to-day.

With 250 tons and 148 storage passengers the Dollar liner President Cleveland arrived Wednesday from the East. The Cleveland brought in 5,415 tons of cargo, including 285 bales of raw Japanese silk.

James Griffiths, well-known Pacific Coast shipping man, has been appointed general manager of the Alaska Transportation Company with offices at Seattle, it is announced to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank LeRoy left today for Seattle, where they will attend the "Eagles' Special" for Toledo, Ohio. Mr. LeRoy will represent the local members of the Fraternal Order of Eagles at the big convention to be held in the Ohio city. Before returning they will visit Cincinnati, Detroit and other Eastern cities.

The many friends of Mr. William E. ("Scotty") Henderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Henderson of Duncan, will be glad to know that he is showing signs of recovery from the serious illness which confines him to the Jubilee Hospital.

At his residence, 41 South Turner Street, this morning, the Rev. C. M. Tate united in marriage Mr. West Larder and Mrs. Jessie Wilson Quintal, both of Ashland, Oregon.

Dr. F. H. Quinn of Abbotsford, formerly of Victoria, is spending a few days in the city after motoring through Washington State, via Tacoma and Seattle.

NEW ELDERS AT ST. ANDREW'S ARE ELECTED

The members of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church met in congregational meeting on Wednesday evening and elected the following gentlemen as elders: Messrs. D. D. Muir, John Simpson, F. L. Macpherson, Robert Kerr, Walter Paterson, A. F. Angus and Dr. Thomas Miller. Three vacancies were reported in the board of management and Messrs. McDowen, Duncan and Petrie were elected to fill them. Dr. Clay gave a brief address reviewing some of the points of interest of the recent conference in Toronto.

The treasurer briefly reviewed the financial situation, reporting the church to be in a very satisfactory position.

The superintendent of the Sunday school announced that the annual picnic of the school would be held on Labor Day and invited the attendance and co-operation of the congregation to make it a success. At the close of the business session the ladies of the Women's Guild served refreshments and a very pleasant social hour was enjoyed.

HELEN WILLS EASILY DEFEATS MOLLA

Seabright, N.J., July 30. — Helen Wills overwhelmed Mrs. Molla B. Mallory today in the semi-finals of the women's singles in the Seabright invitation tennis tournament. The California girl and national champion took only twenty-six minutes to beat her rival by scores of 6-1 and 6-0. It was the most decisive triumph Miss Wills had ever scored over Mrs. Mallory in the few years they have been rivals for national honors. The champion opened with a whirlwind attack that gave her the first four games in quick order. She was momentarily checked when Mrs. Mallory won the fifth game on her own service, but the Berkeley girl quickly regained her stride and took the next eight games in a row.

Ask Exemption From All Taxes For 63 Years

Tax exemption for sixty-three years by Victoria City has been asked for the proposed terminal grain elevator by the Panama Pacific Grain Terminals Limited, the concern which has obtained a lease of a portion of the Ogden Point docks from the Canadian National Railway. The tax exemption asked will be for the life of the lease obtained. Mayor Carl Pendray and Alderman M. P. Blair have been appointed by the City Council finance committee to carry on negotiations with the company.

In the Saanich police court which sat yesterday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock, Magistrate George Jay imposed five fines of varying amounts for breaches of the Motor Vehicles Act within the rural municipality.

Yesterday afternoon between 2 and 3 o'clock two grass fires were fought and extinguished by firemen of the city force, one on Poul Bay Road and the other on Cecilia Road.

About two hundred and fifty members of the City Temple and their friends journeyed out to the Willows Beach late yesterday afternoon for the very enjoyable picnic arranged under the auspices of the Business Ladies' Club of the church. Although the affair was not scheduled to start until 5 o'clock, a big crowd of enthusiasts were assembled some time before that hour, all ready for the fun. The cafeteria supper proved a great attraction, piles of good things disappearing like magic. Coconut shies and an archery contest were very popular features and the kiddies thoroughly enjoyed the pony rides. In the evening a bonfire was built and the Moose Band played selections which were much enjoyed.

B.C. COAL OUTPUT SHOWS INCREASE IN FIRST SIX MONTHS

Total For Half of Year Rises

Island Figures Down Due to Lack of Demand and Labor Troubles

Coal production in British Columbia in the first six months of the present year totaled 1,175,100 long tons compared with 1,047,651 tons in the same period in 1924, an increase this year of 125,469 tons over the corresponding half-year in 1924.

According to figures issued by Hon. William Sloan, Minister of Mines, the Vancouver Island output is still running behind that of a year ago, lack of demand, coupled with the recent stoppage for a week in the mines of the Western Fuel Corporation, being responsible for the curtailed production on the island where in the six months the output aggregated 45,247 long tons compared with 47,069 tons in 1924. This is a falling off of $9,870 tons.

The activity in the Crow's Nest Pass district this year is responsible for the favorable showing being made by the collieries of British Columbia, the Crow's Nest Pass company's mines at Richelieu and Coal Creek, together with the Corbin Company's output being steady whereas, at this time a year ago, those products were shut down because of labor trouble.

Below are the island figures of production for the six months period compared with those for the same time last year:

CALLS FOR RELEASE OF THREE CHINAMEN

Commitment Not in Order
Argues Stuart Henderson
in Chambers

Arguing that the warrant of commitment was not in order, Stuart Henderson in Supreme Court Chambers this morning pressed his habeas corpus application calling for the release from jail of Lu Back Hing, Wong Yai and Wong Yue, three Vancouver Chinamen sentenced by Magistrate Findly under the Opium and Narcotic Drug Act. J. D. Macfarlane appeared for the crown. The application has been before the court on previous occasions. The Chinese were sentenced to six months' imprisonment and $200 fine, the minimum under the act. The warrant was not in order, Mr. Henderson argued, in that the act stated that $100 and costs was the minimum penalty that could be inflicted in addition to the prison term. Costs in this instance had not been included. Decision was reserved.

MAN WAS KILLED AND MAN IS HELD

Marshfield, Ore., July 30.—A young man, about twenty-eight years old, believed to be George Holmes of Longview, Wash., was shot and killed last night at a little house on the waterfront in North Bend. J. R. Hallie is being held in connection with Holmes' death and N. Dunn is in jail as a witness. Dunn admitted the three men had been drinking, officials said. According to Dunn's story, Hallie left the room and Holmes started through Hallie's pockets. Hallie returned and a scuffle followed in which Hallie attempted to put Holmes out of the house. Both men then drew guns and Hallie fired, Dunn related.

LAST LEGAL LOTTERY ENDS

The last legal lottery in the United States ended when Bernard C. Shields, secretary of the New Orleans board of liquidation, spun the big glass wheel behind him for the last time. This signalled the retirement of the famous $20,000,000 bond issue voted fifty years ago, in which $2,500,000 in prizes to lucky bond holders were paid out. The blindfolded orphan boy, in the background, drew the lucky numbers after the wheel was spun, and somebody was richer by $5,000.

championship in Pendleton in 1912, rode a Roman race and drove a chariot race, both of which events were incorporated in the picture story.

Several of the bunch of Universal Ranch Riders assigned to the Gibson unit took part in the programmed events, and are holders of championships won in former years. In "Let 'er Buck," Gibson has the part of a young cowboy forced by a scheme of a rival in love to flee the big Texas ranch on which he was employed. As a brake-beam tourist he reaches Pendleton a few days before the annual round-up, and is given a job on a ranch near by. The owner of the ranch is a woman, and discovering that there is a plot to prevent her horse winning the two races to ride and drive for her, Marian Nixon and Josie Sedgwick are in the cast, directed by Ed. Sedgwick.

DOMINION NEXT WEEK

STORY BY JAMES MACKENZIE

CANADIAN SOPRANO,
ETHEL CODD, AT
DOMINION TO-NIGHT

The new Canadian soprano, Miss Ethel Codd, who is winning golden opinions for her singing under her engagement at the Dominion, will render her songs, "In the Garden of Your Heart" and "My Hero," to the orchestral accompaniment of Al Prescott and his orchestra. A delightful and tuneful programme has also been arranged by Mr. Prescott for presentation during the showing of the Feature attraction, including the following numbers: Grand selection from Faust, "Romance in E-flat" (Rubenstein); three songs from Elland, by Felix, "Prelude in G Minor" (Rachmaninoff), and some of the latest fox trots and dance hits.

WILD RIDE BIG
SCENE IN "SPANIARD"
NOW AT CAPITOL

The ability of Ricardo Cortez as a horseman stood him in good stead in "The Spaniard," a Paramount production. One of Cortez's favorite sports is horseback riding, and when the script called for a wild and perilous ride, Cortez was not only on the job but on the horse. He put his mount across streams and over fences. But when it came to a ruined wall, he followed the script and took a spectacular fall. Then he ate a free dinner on Raoul Walsh, directing, by putting his horse over the wall three times in perfect form. The chase is one of the many big punch scenes in the production, which is being shown at the Capitol Theatre all this week. Jetta Goudal, featured with Noah Beery and Cortez in "The Spaniard," is held captive in an isolated castle in the mountains by Cortez as "The Spaniard." The cross-country ride and spectacular fall is the result of an attempted get-away by Miss Goudal. "The Spaniard," adapted from the screen by J. T. O'Donoghue from the novel by that name by Juanita Savage, includes Emily Fitzroy, Renzo De Gardi, Mathilda Brundage, Bernard Seiler, Florence Renart and others in the supporting cast.

HAWKS HOLDS RECORD NOW AS
SCENARIO WRITER

Adapting a three-page Saturday Evening Post story to the screen and developing from this meagre description and dialogue enough action for a seven-reel picture is no easy task, yet J. G. Hawks, who wrote the screen continuity for First National's picture version of May Edington's story, "Judgment," being shown at the Coliseum Theatre, under the title of "Her Husband's Secret," did it in less than two weeks.

"THE SEA LION"
PROVES POPULAR
DRAWING CARD

The crowds at the Playhouse Theatre give some evidence of the popularity of Hobart Bosworth, the star whose latest picture, "The Sea Lion," distributed by the Associated First National Pictures, Inc., is showing there. In this film offering, Bosworth returns to the role in which he has been held highest in fan esteem, that of a grizzled captain of seven seas whose iron domination knows no laws except those of brute force. In this delineation of the rough character of the master of "The Lark," the star has mixed a quaint contrast in the pathetic father love that finds a reawakening in the final incidents of the story. It is this realistic contrast that puts the stamp of individuality upon the picture more than anything else and marks Bosworth as an actor of the first water.

The picture breathes the air of the sea and the story intermingles inherent brutality with a tense love story and heart appeal. A competent cast aids the story, the players including Bessie Love, Emory Johnson, Carol Holloway, Florence Carpenter, Charles Clary, Jack Curtis, Richard Morris and J. Gordon Russell.

KNOWLEDGE OF
PSYCHOLOGY BRINGS
WRITER SUCCESS

The perfect continuity of "The Unholy Three," the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayor production directed by Tod Browning and now being shown at the Dominion Theatre, is due largely to the newspaper experience of Waldemar Young, famous scenario and continuity writer. Young spent many years as a newspaper reporter in San Francisco and as a newspaper man learned the psychology of life by rubbing elbows with people who tread every path and follow every vocation. He knew how to spin a good story long before he entered the picture world. He knew how people live, how they talk and act, how they react to certain conditions and most of all—how they think. The cast of "The Unholy Three" includes: Lon Chaney, Mae Busch, Victor McLaglen, Matt Moore, Harry Earles and Mathew Betts.

NEW WAR WEAPON
TEST NOW ASKED

San Francisco, July 30.—Dr. Edwin R. Scott, self-styled inventor of what he terms a "death stroke" in the form of "canned lightning," which he claims will revolutionize existing war tactics, said yesterday he would formally request the Navy Department's assistance in testing his invention off the California coast some time in September. Dr. Scott said he wished to convince Government officials of the truth of his contentions regarding the efficacy of his invention as a death-dealing agency. He plans to make the test with the aid of an old battleship or a glitzy aircraft carrier.

plane, or both. These, he says, he would ask the Government to furnish him.

CLAIMS MADE
Here are a few of the properties attributed to his invention by Dr. Scott: Destruction of all life on land, sea, or in the air, within a radius of twenty miles; disabling of all radio apparatus within a similar radius; destruction of the superstructures of battleships at a distance of ten miles or more; the bringing down of aeroplanes from any height possible for a plane to achieve; destruction or disabling of land fortifications at long distances.

While maintaining strict secrecy regarding the structural details of his machine, Dr. Scott said all necessary parts were here ready for assembling, and that the more important parts were carefully guarded in a safety deposit vault.

CANADIAN MINERS' UNION

Drumheller, Alta., July 30.—The returned soldiers among the miners are taking a hand in the present strike situation here. At a meeting yesterday, a committee was appointed to interview the business men to let them know the veterans were not in favor of any Red propaganda, but neither did they want a foreign organization like the United Mine Workers of America in the valley. They say they are standing for a Canadian union, and they want the Government and the operators to recognize such a union.

BASEBALL, CRICKET

Nanaimo, Weakened By Injuries, Loses Cup

Ulster United, of Toronto, Crowned Soccer Champions of Canada; Rough Play Spoils Game; Routledge, Nanaimo's Regular Goalie, Plays Outside Right, While Macfarlane and Wilson Were Missing From Line-up

Winnipeg, July 30.—The Connaught Cup, carrying with it the Dominion football championship title, once more goes east. Ulster United of Toronto, Eastern representatives, were worthy winners in the final game against Nanaimo last night, winning by 2-0.

This was the third meeting of the teams. The previous games, both draws, produced football equal, if not better, than any ever seen here, but in the game last night hard feelings developed and spoiled a real cup-tie exhibition. Although several minor fouls might have been excused, the rough tactics of both teams disappointed the 5,000 or more fans. During the first forty-five minutes the play was excellent. All players paid strict attention to the task ahead of them. But the second half was only twenty-four minutes old when Bobby Lavery, who had been cautioned several times, was banished for fouling Dickenson. This incident was followed by the banishment of several other players.

Nanaimo was handicapped by injuries to the regular line players and several changes were the result. For a considerable period the rearranged team worked well, but the strain soon began to tell. However, taking it all around, Nanaimo, under the circumstances, showed up splendidly.

LAVERY SCORES GOALS

Ulster played with more pep and considerably more understanding than their opponents. Bobby Lavery was the man who drove in the scores. Both were well taken, the first before the second half started and the second soon after the opening of the second half. One man who was mainly responsible for the Ulster victory was Merr, on the left flank.

Nanaimo won the toss and took advantage of a strong wind. Ulster kicked off but Nanaimo went through. An offside spoiled their chance. R. Lavery missed a great chance when he lost a kick at the six-yard. Kenny shot over the Ulster net after a fast break away. Bob Lavery lifted one over the bar.

Seven minutes after the start R. Lavery opened the scoring for Ulster with a run to the left. Tail helped. Midfield play was the order for the following ten minutes, both defenses being too strong for the attack. Robert Skelton, who played around the Nanaimo net, but Blisset shot past. Smith saved two shots in rapid succession, the first from Macfarlane at center half and Routledge and the last from Harris.

TOMMY WATT GOES THROUGH
Clark skinned the bar with a rocket shot. After twenty-five minutes Nanaimo was gradually creeping into the picture, despite their handicapped team. Smith saved in a magnificent style. At the interval Ulster was leading at 1 to 0.

There was lots of close checking. Nanaimo was handicapped by injury to their players. Routledge, the regular goalie, played at outside right for Wilson. Skelton played at center half, and Tait, the substitute goalie, was in the net. Merr sent in a fast high one, but Tait rose to the occasion and saved below the bar. At the interval Ulster was leading at 1 to 0.

SECOND HALF

Bob Lavery scored shortly after the start of the second period, putting Ulster in the lead by two goals. Merr got into position and passed to Lavery, who took it at the first time of asking. Knight put in a good one, but Smith saved. Williams was injured and was assisted to the side lines.

The players failed to control themselves and the referee was continually stopping the play for rough tactics. Smith saved from Clark and Williams resumed play after two minutes' absence. Merr shot over the top. Nanaimo were working hard in an effort to reduce their lead, but their attack was ineffective. Content with their two-goal lead, Ulster took things easy and Nanaimo pressed. R. Lavery was ordered from the game for a major offence.

PLAYERS SENT OFF

After twenty-four minutes' play, Lavery took a run to Tommy Dickenson, just outside of the penalty area. Watt, Ulster, and White, Nanaimo, also were put off for mixing matters. Nanaimo pressed Ulster into their own goal, but Smith was on the job. Five minutes from time, Kenny, the Nanaimo left half, was ordered off the field for a minor infraction. End-to-end play followed and the final whistle found Ulster still in possession of their two-goal lead.

The teams were: Tait, Edmunds, Dickenson, McDougall, Stobart, Kenny, Routledge, Knight, Watt, Clark and Harris.
Ulster—Smith, Williams, Rankin, Blisset, Clulow, Watt, Johnson, P. Lavery, R. Lavery, Grant and Merr. Referee—W. Hetherington, Regina.

FOLEY GAINS A DRAW

Vancouver, July 30.—Vic Foley, bantamweight champion of Canada, and Tommy Ryan of McKeessport, Pa., fought a ten-round draw here last night.

In the semi-final bout at catch weights, Joe Wilson of Vancouver won by a knockout over Duke Potter in the sixth and final round.

"RACEHORSE" KNOCKED OUT
San Francisco, July 30.—Frankie Campbell, San Francisco light heavyweight, knocked out "Racehorse" Robert, Oakland, in the final round of their ten-round bout here last night.

May Have Broken 50-Yard Record

LOIS MURFIN

Seattle, July 30.—With two records broken yesterday in the 440-yard breast stroke and the 100-yard free style events, the Amateur Athletic Union national swimming and diving championship being held in the Lake Washington ship canal here continued today.

Robert Skelton, of the Illinois A.C., Chicago, set a new 440's record yesterday in the 440-yard breast stroke for men. His time was 6:30.2 minutes, compared with 6:50 minutes which he set himself in 1921.

Neva Brownfield of Crystal Pool, Seattle, hung up a new record for the 100-yard breast stroke for women, going the distance in 1:31.4. The previous record, 1:31.8, was set by Madeleine Pless at Tacoma in 1923.

Lois Murfin, youthful Portland aquatic star, swam the fifty-yard free style for women in 26.0 seconds, a check being made to see whether this is a world's record for the distance.

Miss Murfin competed here in the three-day gala at the Crystal Garden in July. She is only a midget, but has incredible speed and strength for her size. Robert Skelton, who set a world's record for the breast-stroke, was one of the performers at the V.A.A.S.C. gala at the Crystal Garden next Tuesday evening.

Great Field Tees Off In Canadian Open Golf Title
Hagen, MacFarlane, Diegel and Kirkwood Among Those Competing To-day

Toronto, July 30.—Under fine weather conditions a record field both in quality and quantity started out over the course of the Lambert Golf Club to-day in the qualifying round for the Canadian open golf championship. More than fifty players from the United States are entered, making the retention of the championship in the United States for the seventh year a strong possibility. The field numbers 165 in all. Leo Diegel, Glen Owens, N.J., defender of the title, Willie MacFarlane, United States open champion, Walter Hagen, and Joe Kirkwood are among the United States contenders.

Eighteen holes are being played to-day and eighteen to-morrow, both being qualifying rounds for the entire field. Those within twenty strokes of the leader at the end of the two rounds to-morrow evening will play in the final thirty-six holes of play on Saturday.

A notable withdrawal made at the commencement was that of Johnny Farrell.

The weather cleared up this morning and conditions are practically ideal. There is a strong sun and very little wind. The course is in fine condition and there are no complaints regarding the greens.

The last pair will start out about 4 o'clock.

Washington Able to Beat Chicago and Keep Pace With Winning Athletics

Pittsburg Club Braves Into Submission, While Giants Are Beaten Again

New York, July 30.—Washington's batsmen have come to the aid of their veteran pitchers. With a four-run rally in the eighth the champions yesterday outscored Chicago, thereby keeping pace with the Athletics of the American League.

First Zachary, then Marberry, and then Johnson went to the mound for the Senators during the battle, and Johnson was effective, allowing only one hit in three innings and gaining credit for the 8-6 victory, while Faber, who relieved Blankenship, suffered the defeat. Philadelphia bats were busy and kept Cobb and the other Detroit outfielders in the run after sixteen safe blows, which counted ten runs. The Tigers could only muster two runs.

Ernie Johnson's homer in New York was in the day's individual features. The Yankees, and the Browns struggled for twelve innings until Johnson sent his homer into the right field stands and New York won 8-7.

Cleveland again loosed a heavy attack that humbled the Red Sox 10-5.

Four Brooklyn pitchers had a hot time in St. Louis, and also their teammates who registered fifteen hits, one more than the opposition total, but they lost to the Cardinals 10-3.

Cincinnati recorded its fifth straight victory by beating the Phillies 9-5 in a free-hitting contest.

PITTSBURG RUSH AHEAD
Pittsburg added a full game to its lead in the National League by beating the Braves for the third straight game 8-4, while the Giants lost to Chicago 4-2.

HOMERUN SLUGGERS WITH ROGERS HORNSBY, LEADER, IN CENTRE
From present indications a new homerun record for the major leagues is almost a certain thing this season. Fact is, that nothing short of an earthquake can prevent its establishment. With the campaign a little more than past the half-way mark over 700 circuit drives have been made in the two big leagues. And inasmuch as the present record stands at 1,054 only a few more than 300 additional homers are needed in the rest of the 1925 season to shatter the major league mark hung up by the New York Yankees in 1921.

Thus, if the sluggers in the American and National can pound out slightly more than half as many homers as the sluggers of the past season, a new record is assured. When the present mark was made four years ago, the older league turned in 530 homers, the younger 524. That was the campaign in which Babe Ruth accomplished the unbelievable by banging out 59 four-baggers across a season's stretch.

That year the Phillies compiled 116 homers, the club record to date. At the halfway point this season, the Giants were showing their heels to the rest of the crowd with 77. If they adhere to the pace set in the initial seventy-five tilts they should excel the Philly performance by a goodly margin.

Statistics show that there was a decided drop in the homerun column in 1924, a total of 883 being accrued. In 1923, 979 homers were made.

This year, however, the Swatsmiths, as mentioned, are massaging the agate with more vehemence than ever in the history of baseball and unless the dope is all wrong a new major league record will be established.

Esquimalt Twelve To Meet Sidney at Canteen To-night
A good lacrosse game is looked for to-night, when the Esquimalt and Sidney intermediate lacrosse teams will clash at the Esquimalt canteen, commencing at 8:30 o'clock.

Sidney have been improving as the season progresses, and last week headed the Sons of Canada, the league leaders, their first defeat of the season.

At present Esquimalt and Sidney are tied for second place in the league standing. The winner of to-night's game will be running the Sons a close second for the league leadership.

Immediately following the match a meeting of the Victoria and District Lacrosse League will be held, and delegates are requested to attend.

Washington but was hit hard, giving way to Marberry, who in turn retired in favor of Walter Johnson. Faber, who replaced Blankenship in the seventh, was the victim of the Senators comeback.

YANKEES WIN WITH HOMER
New York, July 30.—Ernie Johnson's home run off Southpaw Danforth broke a deadlock in the twelfth inning yesterday, giving the Yanks an 8 to 7 victory over the Browns.

It was the New York club's fifteenth two-game winning streak of the year. Harry Rice, who replaced Slater at first, helped the Browns tie up the game in the sixth with a home run. The St. Louis manager was called to Barber's office, to-day by the death of his mother.

CANUCK GIRLS OUT TO WIN ATHLETIC MEET IN LONDON

London, July 30 (Canadian Press Cable).—"We live for Saturday. We are simply here for Saturday, a great match, and mean to win. All else on this little trip is being subordinated to that object."

This is the spirit which animates every member of the Canadian girl athletic party, Miss A. Gibb, the manager, said last night.

The girl athletes have found the change in weather conditions trying, but hope to get acclimated by Saturday. The famous athletes, Shrubbs, Capt. Webster and Mussolini, who have been coaching them, found them apt pupils.

Sons' Nine Defeats Travelers in Game For Second Position

Youngsters in Rare Hitting Mood and Won Easily; Final Score 17-4

Playing errorless ball behind the fine pitching of Jack Curtis the Sons of Canada trounced the Travelers at the Royal Athletic Park last night by the score of 17-4. As a result of their win the Sons won second position in the senior amateur league standing. There was no doubt last night as to which was the best team. After the first inning the Sons went into the lead and increased it in the remaining innings.

Jack Curtis, who was on the mound for the Sons, pitched his best game this season. Ten scattered hits were gathered off his offerings, while only one batter secured a free passage to first. He struck out five.

Roy Parfitt, the Travelers' selection, ran into trouble at the start. He was touched up for sixteen hits, while he walked four. Ten batters struck at his curves in vain.

START SCORING EARLY
The Travelers scored one run in the first inning, but in their half the Sons went one better by sending two runners across the plate.

In the second inning the Sons treated the fans to some hard hitting. At the conclusion of the inning the Natives had scored a total of two runs. Two errors by the Sons' infield and a couple of hits gave the mame men three runs in the third inning.

In the third inning the Sons went on scoring spree and drove home three more runs.

During the next four innings the Travelers were held scoreless, while the Sons sent two runners home in the sixth, one in the seventh and three more in the eighth.

Frank Moore led the hitters with three hits and four trips to the plate. Smith led the Sons with three hits out of five trips to the plate.

Marjorie Leeming Wins But Hope is Beaten in Singles

Tacoma, July 30.—The invading Californians, with one exception, continued the assault on the Pacific Northwest tennis championships in the men's singles and women's singles events during the third day of play to-day at the Tacoma Lawn Tennis Club courts.

Miss Alberta Edl, Tacoma city champion, eliminated Miss Helen Leeming of Victoria, 6-4, 5-2, 6-2, in the women's singles.

Miss Marjorie Leeming, Victoria, Canadian champion, defeated Takaku Marlowe of Honolulu, 6-4, 6-2, and Mrs. Sybil Stone, Vancouver, won from Miss Helen Deline, Tacoma, 6-2, 6-0.

New York, July 30.—Members of the combined Oxford-Cambridge tennis team won two of the three singles matches played at the Newport Casino to-day in their three-day tournament with the Harvard-Yale team.

Richards Rushes Through His Game With G. Patterson

Australian Ace Easy Prey For Young American; Hawkes Also Suffers Defeat

Helen Willis Forced to Three Sets to Win; J. Q. Anderson Still in Running

Seabright, N.J., July 30.—John B. Hawkes of the Australian Davis Cup team and Mrs. Marion Z. Jessup of Wilmington, Del., triumphed to-day over Jack Morris of Canada and Miss Penelope Anderson of Richmond, Va., 6-1, 6-1, in the second round of the mixed doubles of the Seabright invitation tennis tournament.

Seabright, N.J., July 30.—One of Australia's many tennis stars, Gerald Patterson, was eliminated yesterday from the Seabright bowl invitation tournament on the grass courts of the Seabright Lawn Tennis Club by Vincent L. Richards of Yonkers, N.Y. America's second ranking star, the victory for Richards, 6-3, 6-3, placed him in the semifinal bracket, where to-day he faces Williams II. of Philadelphia.

Williams won his place in the semifinals by beating another Australian rival, J. D. Hawkes, the No. 3 man on the Australian Davis Cup team. Williams won 7-5, 6-3, the Antipodean southpaw giving him plenty of opposition in the first set.

But the Australian threat was not entirely eliminated. James D. Anderson, singles champion of the island and continent, upset the sensation of the tournament, A. H. Chapin Jr. of Springfield, Mass., 6-4, 6-3, and thereby won himself a place in the semifinals. Chapin is the individual who, in the first and second rounds of play, eliminated Watson M. Washburn and Howard O. Kinsey. This victory for the lanky Australian places him against Cranston Holman, the eighteen-year-old Leland Stanford University star, in the semifinals in the lower half of the bracket to-morrow. Holman, runner-up in the intercollegiate championships this year, eliminated Dr. George King of New York, to-day, 6-4, 6-2, and he did it with far more ease than King eliminated William M. Johnston of California, yesterday.

Miss Helen Willis, national and Olympic champion, who has been sweeping away all opposition in straight sets and who lost only two games in her first two singles matches, will face off against Miss Marion Zinderstein Jessup of Wilmington, Del., but won 4-6, 6-3, 6-1. Mrs. Jessup tossed a real scare into the hearts of the Antipodean champion by defeating Miss Molly Thaxton of Philadelphia, 6-4, 6-1.

MISS RYAN SURPRISES
If an upset occurred it was in the lower half of the bracket where Miss Elizabeth Ryan of England eliminated Miss Eleanor Goss of California, 6-4, 6-2, 6-1.

The women's doubles also reached the semi-final round, Miss Charlotte Heomer and Miss Helen Jacobs of California, and Miss Elizabeth Ryan and Miss Eleanor Goss taking their places in the bracket alongside of the Willis-Patterson team and the Bundy-Williams team.

Miss Ryan was victorious, 6-1, 6-2. By virtue of this victory, Miss Ryan will face Mary K. Browne of Los Angeles, a former national champion, in the semi-final round to-morrow. Miss Ryan's opponent in the semi-final round was Miss Mary K. Browne of Los Angeles, a former national champion, in the semi-final round to-morrow.

SCHOOL DAYS By DWIG

SERIAL STORY "THE LOVE CYCLE"

BY MILDRED BARBOUR

It was about this time that Armstrong began to come to the office around 5 in the afternoon when the staff was preparing to leave. He invariably sent for Jane to do a little work for him. It necessitated remaining after the others had gone, but since he paid her for extra time and he did, nothing offensive, she could not refuse. Besides, she had the comforting consciousness that Ellis Haynes had not departed with the rest, but lingered in the adjoining office, on the pretext of a press of work. Several times she noticed that Armstrong, who passed restlessly up and down with an unlighted cigar between his lips, paused apparently by accident just in front of Haynes's closed door, and listened to ascertain if he was still there.

"It's awfully good of you to stay," Jane told Haynes one evening, when she was finally free and he had joined her on the dark stairway, "but aren't you afraid of making him angry?"

"Maybe," he shrugged, "the old boy is on to you, but he can't do long as I can keep him from annoying you."

A week later, the inevitable occurred. Armstrong sent word to his head stenographer that he would be at the office shortly after five and that Miss Marlowe should be asked to remain to do some work for him. The woman gave Jane the message with a smile that was both sad and significant. When Haynes came to join Jane at the closing hour and was told what her orders were, his lips tightened grimly.

"I have extra work, too," he announced, and returned to his own office. Armstrong arrived shortly after 5 and Jane went dutifully to his office. For a while, the same programme was repeated as on former occasions. She worked steadily at her machine and he paced the floor. Then she rose to go into the outer office to secure more paper and found him between her and the door. His face was flushed as though he had been drinking, his eyes were more baleful under their drooping lids, and he breathed heavily.

Before she could evade him, he grasped her by both shoulders, and thrusting his face close to hers, said thickly:

"Give me a kiss! Haven't you kept me waiting long enough?"

There was a struggle which was interrupted by the abrupt entrance of Haynes, who flung the door wide. Armstrong released Jane and measured both her and Haynes with eyes grown suddenly cold. His face was like a mask as he said: "Get out, both of you. I never set foot in these offices again!"

THE PROPOSAL
Jane found Ellis Haynes waiting for her when she came out of the office.

"I'll give you everything," he said tensely. "Don't you know I have been crazy about you ever since I first saw you. I never wanted to marry, but I want you and I'll give my life to trying to make you happy. You deserve the best there is, you beauty!"

Before she could think to resist, he had swept her to his arms and crushed her lips with his. Girls more experienced than Jane had succumbed under the spell of his caresses. A kiss was an art with him—one which was controlled much more frequently by his brain than by his heart.

Jane felt herself growing weak with an emotion which she thought was love. Forgetful of the time and place, she lay unresisting in his arms and let him kiss again and again her eyes and lips and throat.

It was only the sharp staccato of heels on the sidewalk, warning of an approaching pedestrian, that recalled her to earth. Haynes released her, and they continued their way down the street. There was no chance for conversation in the car, and it was only when they had reached her door that she said tenderly:

"May I go in with you, sweetheart, and tell your mother that you are going to marry me?"

For one brief instant, Jane hesitated, while across her mental vision flashed the face of the girl in the office who, cast aside for a new hand, looked after him with suspicious, pleading eyes. Some little warning voice in her brain reminded her that she knew nothing of this man, of his antecedents, of his source of income.

But when she looked up into his eyes and saw passion there, heard his quickened breath and felt his involuntary movement toward her, some force against which she was powerless captured her senses.

She opened the door and with a little nod over her shoulder invited him to follow her.

sistent on a speedy wedding and Jane had no reason for refusing, especially since her mother, childishly delighted with the turn of events, urged it eagerly.

The wedding was no more than a ceremony. Haynes called for his bride and her mother in a cab at 11 o'clock in the morning and took them to the rectory of a nearby church where the simple ritual was read. It was a dark, rainy morning, a heavy fog enveloped the city and Jane felt it weigh unaccountably on her spirits. She did not feel in the least like a bride. There was no happy radiance in her eyes; some premonition of disaster seemed to hover about her.

She had spoken of it hesitantly to her mother while she dressed for her wedding in one of her simple over-made gowns. Mrs. Marlowe had laughed with almost a semblance of her old-time gaiety and kissed her daughter lightly on her forehead.

"All brides feel like that, child. I was scared to death when I married your father and so blue at the thought of leaving home that I wept all the night before and simply ruined my eyes, but we were a wedding veil over our faces in those days and it did not show."

She turned away suddenly, but not before Jane saw the glint of tears in her eyes. She knew that her mother's heart ached at the thought of the wedding she might once have given Jane in the big house.

Jane remained silent. She could not tell her mother that it was not the age-old sensation of brides on their wedding morn which possessed her; it was something much more tangible and definite.

On the previous evening she had been returning after dusk with a last minute purchase from the shops, and she had seen Ellis Haynes in company with the girl at the office whose name had been so frequently linked with his. She would have dismissed the incident without further thought, believing that they met accidentally on the street, if they had not paused under the street lamp at the corner.

She saw that the girl was crying and endeavoring with a hand on his arm to detain Haynes who was obviously impatient to be off. Jane was in a quandary. She did not wish them to see her, and yet if they did catch sight of her in the crowd, it would seem to give undue significance to the incident if she deliberately turned back to avoid them. So with her head held proudly high and with a glint greeting on her tongue, she walked resolutely past them.

They did not see her. Haynes' back was to her and the girl was fumbling with her handkerchief and apparently blinded by tears.

But as she passed, Jane heard Haynes say to the girl—and every word cut like a dagger in her heart: "Now don't try to play the innocent with me. You are no child! You know what you were doing. It's all in the game, so be a sport and don't blame me."

Jane fairly rushed home through the darkness. Her mother was getting supper in the tiny kitchen. She was singing happily. She had only begun to sing again since the announcement of Jane's engagement.

To be continued.

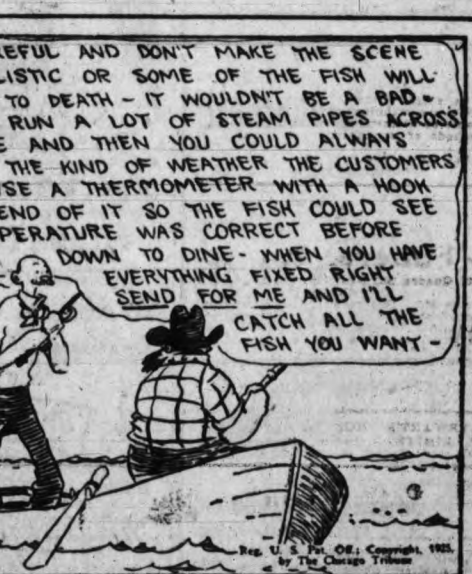

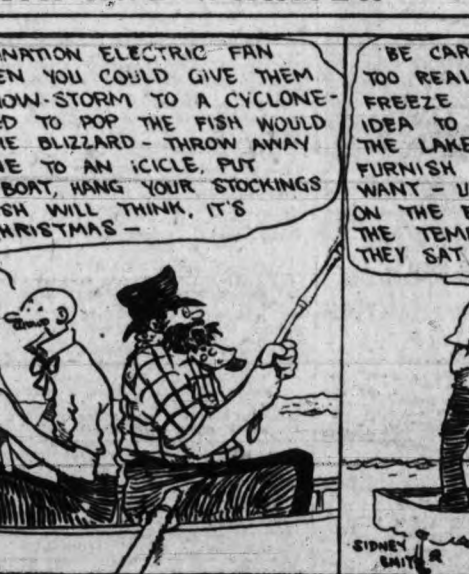

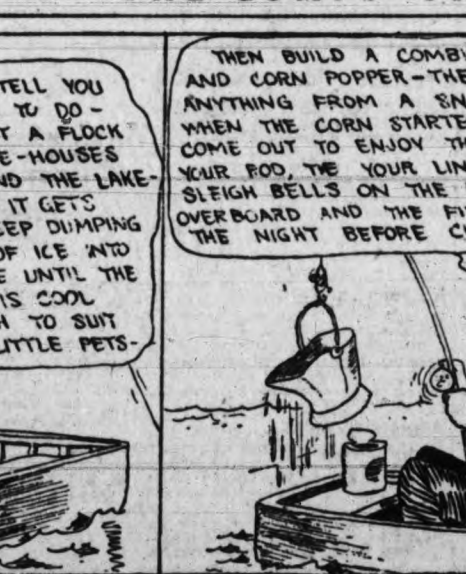

You can commit no greater folly than to sit by the roadside until someone comes along and invites you to ride with him to wealth and influence.

—Wesley.

COULD NOT SLEEP NIGHTS

Pains and Headaches Relieved by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Dublin, Ontario.—"I was weak and irregular, with pains and headaches, and could not sleep nights. I learned about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound by reading the letters in the newspapers and tried it because I wanted to get better. I have got good results from it as I feel a lot stronger and am not troubled with such bad headaches as I used to be and am more regular. I am gaining in weight all the time and I tell my friends what kind of medicine I am taking. You may use my letter as a help to others. Mrs. JAMES RACON, Box 15, Dublin, Ontario.

Halifax Nurse Recommends
Halifax, N. S.—"I am a maternity nurse and have recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to many women who were children, also to women who need a good tonic. I am English and my husband is American, and he told me of Lydia E. Pinkham while in England. I would appreciate a copy or two of your little books on women's ailments. I have one which I keep to hand. I will willingly answer letters from any woman asking about the Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. S. M. COLEMAN, 24 Unlocks St., Halifax, Nova Scotia.

Sentence of Life For I. Yamamoto

Vancouver, July 28.—The sentence of death on I. Yamamoto for the murder of another Japanese at Port Alice, on Vancouver Island, a few months ago, has been commuted to life imprisonment, according to word received here from Thomas Mulvey, Under-Secretary of State at Ottawa. The reprieve was asked by the British Columbia authorities on the ground that Yamamoto, who was to have been hanged on August 7, was insane at the time the crime was committed.

Vanderhoof, B.C., July 30.—Two months' imprisonment was meted out to F. Alghen by Magistrate J. D. Chalmers here yesterday for refusing to assist in fighting a forest fire.

REALTY LEADERS OUTLINE CAMPAIGN FOR TAX REVISION

President C. G. Edwards of National Realty Association to Speak Here

Charles G. Edwards of New York and Hubert U. Nelson of Chicago, president and executive secretary of the National Association of Real Estate Boards, will be the guests of the Victoria Real Estate Board on Monday, and will be tendered either a luncheon or dinner by the local realtors.

The distinguished leaders of the real estate world of North America are organizing the strength of the 545 real estate boards affiliated with the National Association in support of a campaign for abolition of taxation, such as succession duties, unduly burdensome to real property. They are attending the Bellingham Convention of the Northwest Real Estate Association, which opens tomorrow, and will accompany the Victoria delegates on their return from the discussions.

Victoria delegates attending the Bellingham Convention will include Ralph Wilson, Harold H. Brown, T. Horton, David Leeming, Jimmy Stewart, Beaumont Boegs, Alfred Carmichael, R. H. Shanks, A. Burden, Harold D. Patterson, E. A. Eagle and Fred Lansberg, who is vice-president for British Columbia of the Northwest Real Estate Association.

Proposed Outlay £58,000,000; Ramsay MacDonald and Others Speak

London, July 30.—The House of Commons last night approved the Government's programme to build seven cruisers. This was done after the Liberals and Laborites had sought to have the appropriations for new warships reduced on the ground that there was no naval war in sight and therefore there was no need to burden the already heavily taxed country with an additional expenditure of £58,000,000. Ramsay MacDonald, former Labor premier, moved a reduction of the shipbuilding vote, but the House rejected his proposal by a vote of 276 to 140.

PACIFIC EVENTS

There was much talk of potential trouble in the Pacific, but Winston Churchill, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and the other Government spokesmen stressed clear of this subject in the debate. The Chancellor in his official statement respecting the new cruiser building programme said there was only one menace—that the fleet was wearing out. Mr. Churchill repeated one of his most persistent remarks, that Great Britain, having immensely modified her whole historic position by agreeing to have a navy of the same size as that of other countries, intended to maintain her sea forces not inferior to those of any country in the world.

Several speakers with no Government portfolios to incline them to vagueness and generalities, had much to say about possible trouble between the United States and Japan, and also about the tendency of the French to increase their submarine strength.

MACDONALD'S VIEWS

Mr. MacDonald, arguing there was nothing in sight to make war either necessary or inevitable within a dozen years, said nobody would say the United States and Japan were possible enemies. So far as France was concerned, if anybody imagined her a possible enemy, the problem was not naval, but one of the air, land, sea and air forces. Already Great Britain had forty-nine cruisers, while Japan, the next power in that type of armament, had only eighteen.

He seemed to think it a pity there was no indication the Government was doing anything regarding a disarmament conference.

LLOYD GEORGE'S VIEWS
Former Premier Lloyd George contended there was no menace in Europe to justify the new cruiser programme and he asked the Government to say whether there was a menace through the trade routes on the Pacific which justified it in imposing a burden of £58,000,000 on the people.

"Can the Government conceive any peril in the Pacific in the next ten years in which the United States will not be far more involved than we are and on the same side?" he asked.

He said Mr. Churchill had been beaten by the Admiralty, which had arrogated to itself the position of a sovereign, independent state, and which "had negotiated with the Government at the risk of war." And, he went on, "the first condition of security in this country is to teach discipline to the admirals."

Alluding to the foreign press comments, Mr. Lloyd George said there was no use preaching disarmament with the "Sermon on the Mount" in one hand and an order for £58,000,000 worth of warships in the other.

SOLID DEFENCE

Chancellor Churchill, in defending his stand, said he thought the programme which the Government had presented to Parliament provided no more than any reasonable man would regard as necessary for "the sober, yet solid defence of our permanent naval position."

He commended it as discharging the joint functions of national economy and naval defence. Rear-Admiral Suter, Superintendent of Aircraft Construction, declared friction might arise at any time between Japan and the United States, and, he added, "we might be dragged in in the same way as the United States was dragged into the Great War."

He made reference to the hurt feeling which the Japanese experienced because the United States had thrown overboard the "gentlemen's agreement," and asserted the Japanese did not like the voyage of the United States armada from Pearl Harbor to Australia.

Major Sir Betram Falle, Conservative, complained because Britain ranks the third in naval power in the Pacific. He even went so far as to ask the members of the House if they could be sure about the friendship of the United States. He had a notion the United States might be coveting Jamaica, or the Bermudas, the Bahamas, the Falkland Islands, or even Canada.

RAILWAY TAXATION CHANGE IS URGED

Winnipeg, July 30.—Suggesting the Manitoba Government consider adoption of a policy of taxing railways on a mileage basis instead of gross earnings, Sir Henry Thornton, president of the Canadian National Railways; Major G. A. Graham Bell, Deputy Minister of Railways, and M. Gardiner, a member of the Can-

GETTING SKINNER EVERY DAY

Something Must Be Done and Done Right Now—Quick

Hollows in Cheeks and Neck Growing Deeper Every Week

Tens of thousands of thin, run-down men—yes, and women too—are getting discouraged—are giving up all hope of ever being able to take on flesh and look healthy and strong. All such people can stop worrying and start to smile and enjoy life right now, for McCoy's Cod Liver Extract Tablets which any druggist will tell you all about are putting flesh on bony skeletons every day.

One woman, tired, weak and discouraged, gained fifteen pounds in five weeks and now feels fine.

We all know that the Nervs of Cod Fish are full of vitalizing fish-proteins, vitamins and other same vitamins of the highest class are found in McCoy's Cod Liver Extract Tablets—sugar-coated and as easy to take as candy.

And this shows what faith the makers have in McCoy's, for they say: If any thin person don't gain at least five pounds in thirty days your druggist will give you your money back—and only sixty cents for sixty tablets. Ask Vancouver Drug Co., MacFarlane Drug Co., Owl Drug Co., or any live pharmacist anywhere in North or South America. But be sure to get McCoy's, the original and genuine. (Adv.)

NEW GRAIN ACT IN FORCE AUGUST 1

Measure Passed at Recent Ottawa Session About to go Into Effect

Ottawa, July 30.—The Canada Grain Act as revised at the last session of Parliament will become effective August 1. The Order-in-Council authorizing the application of the new regulations has been passed and the official proclamation will be made in The Canada Gazette this week.

The Grain Act was one of the most important measures before Parliament last session, and a special commission gave several weeks to its consideration. The amendments to the old act were chiefly respecting the operation of elevators and the weighing and grading of grain. All terminal elevators under the present act can be put under the control of a commission if the Government so desire, though such action is regarded as unlikely.

DRY KILN AND MANY SHINGLES BURNED

Vancouver, July 30.—A dry kiln and 2,000,000 shingles at the shingle mill of the Hoedel, Stewart & Welsh Joint Corporation Limited, at Boundary Road, in South Vancouver, were destroyed by fire late yesterday afternoon. The loss is estimated at $15,000.

One hundred acres of logged-off land were burned over by fire on the West side of Harrison Lake, eight miles from Harrison Hot Springs. Several small bush fires started in Burnaby, but efforts have prevented the flames from doing serious damage.

Arrest Follows Winnipeg Shooting

Winnipeg, July 30.—Anton Gregory, a Bohemian, has been arrested here for shooting George Laboduk, who yesterday was left in the Winnipeg General Hospital in a critical condition. After depositing Laboduk in the receiving room of the hospital, the men disappeared and drove off in a motor car without leaving any clue as to their identity. Gang warfare was blamed for the shooting.

ITCHY ECZEMA ALL OVER FACE

In Pimples and Blisters. Healed by Cuticura.

"Eczema broke out in pimples and blisters and spread all over my face. It itched and burned causing me to scratch which made it worse. I could not sleep on account of the irritation, and could hardly talk because the sore eruptions were all around my mouth. The trouble lasted several months. "I tried everything I could get but nothing helped me. I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment and got relief. I continued the treatment and in about eight weeks I was completely healed."
